wide open on a broken play up the sideline, and the senior receiver cut back upfield and went past a pair of McNary defenders to reach the goal line for the score.

The Bruins regained possession after a quick three-and-out from McNary and wasted no time moving the ball, using their physical rushing attack to get into McNary territory.

"Instead of messing around so much with their downfield vertical passing game, (Barlow) decided to be physical and run the football," Auvinen said. "That didn't mix very well with us being fatigued and I think they smelled blood in the water. They really ran the football well in the second half and we didn't rise up. We just kind of sat back and took it. We didn't match their physicality."

A 10-yard run from Barlow running back Jake Fay gave the Bruins their first lead of the game at 14-9 with 5:21 left in the third quarter.

McNary got back in business when Barker found Nunez across the middle for a big gain into Barlow territory.

However, the Barlow defense rose up with a big sack moments later to force McNary into a fourth-and-18 situation. In no-man's-land at the Barlow 32-yard line, the Celtics decided to go for it.

On the ensuing play, Barker bought himself time and connected with McNary running back Junior Walling in the corner of the end zone for what appeared to be a touchdown, but a holding call negated the score and pushed the ball back 10 yards. With it being fourth-and-28, McNary elected to punt.

"We had a lot of mistakes. Plays were there to be made and we didn't make them," Auvinen said. "Our defense played their butt off tonight, and our offense gave us a chance early, but if they would have put the pressure on, it would have been a totally different game."

Midway through the fourth quarter, McNary had a chance to take the lead once again.

A pair of first down runs from Barker had the Celtics inside the Barlow 20-yard line. On third-and-one, Barker had his number called once again on a quarterback draw, but this time the Barlow defense stuffed him with a two-yard loss.

Facing fourth-and-three, Barker sprinted to his right looking to throw to the end zone. But his pass intended for Noah Lelack was knocked down and the Celtics were forced to turn the ball over on downs with 5:41 remaining.

The Bruins ripped off three chunk plays in a row to find themselves in the red zone. Eventually, Hunter scored on a one-yard quarterback sneak to put the game on ice with less than three minutes remaining.

"I want to commend the kids. They played hard and they played physical. We just kind of lost it the last quarter," Auvinen said. "We're still a work in progress, but the good thing is that we are seeing strides."

McNary will strive for their first win of the season on Friday, Oct. 4 as they travel to South Medford for their final non-conference game of the season.

Whiteaker picks up first win

Behind 151 rush yards and two touchdowns from Marquis Jackson, the Whiteaker varsity football got their first win of the season on Wednesday, Sept. 25, beating Crossler 29-8.

Kevin Munguia took the second half kickoff 70 yards for a touchdown and Tony Bravo connected on a TD pass to Keenan Chase to round out the scoring for the Wolverines. The Whiteaker defense dominated throughout, allowing Crossler to score just once late in the fourth quarter.

The Wolverine defense was led by Jackson's 12 tackles, along with seven tackles from Desmond Tejada and six from Andrew Zeller.

Head coach Tom Larimer credited his defensive line (Darius Afalava, Justin Larios, Andres Hermsillo Vega and Alex Nava) for much of the success.

"After getting roughed up last week, these guys really worked hard to be more disciplined in their assignments and to play much more physical today," said Larimer. "This is a great win for us; most of our kids have played very little or no football before, whereas Crossler is full of kids who have played for years in their youth football league. Our kids learned that hard work and discipline could pay off against a far more experienced opponent."

Whiteaker did not turn the ball over and committed only two penalties, after being plagued by turnovers and penalties in its opening loss at Parrish.

Whiteaker quarterback Tony Bravo threw for a touchdown in the Wolverines 29-8 win over Crossler.

"We made holding onto the ball a real point of emphasis in practice, and the kids clearly paid attention," said Larimer. "We improved a lot from last week, and it will be fun to see how the kids progress moving forward. We have a long way to go to be a really good team, but today we played a really, really good game."

Next up is a home game on Wednesday, Oct. 9 against Leslie.

"Leslie is another team with a lot of experience, and it will be a good test to see if we can hold our own," said Larimer.
