

ATHLETE of the Week

presented by

ALEJANDRO VILLARREAL Senior at McNary High School

Goalkeeper, Boys Soccer

Villarreal led McNary to a 1-0 victory over fourth-ranked Summit with numerous saves down the stretch. It's the fifth game this season Villarreal hasn't allowed a goal.

WHAT HIS COACH SAYS

"To me, he's the best goalkeeper in the conference and probably a top five keeper in the state. He's very experienced, he's calm and has great skills."

— Miguel Camarena,
McNary boys soccer head coach

McNary Golf Club bids farwell to GM

The McNary Golf Club community bids says goodbye to Brian Weaver, who has been the full time General Manager of McNary Golf Club since 2014.

Weaver will begin working with Troon Management as Director of Golf at RedTail Golf Center in Beaverton.

Weaver has overseen all the day-to-day business at McNary Golf Club for the last five years. As McNary Golf Club is a member owned club, he followed the direction given him by the elected board; but he was responsible for the myriad of details in carrying out that mission.

Weaver was the point man for all of the outside public business and group outings that augmented the club's income, keeping members' dues low.

This was not Weaver's first job at McNary. He worked at McNary in the 1980's, first in the bag room followed by a promotion into the pro shop. His corporate golf experience is extensive, including head pro at the OGA Club in Woodburn for four years, another four years as golf operations manager at Starr Pass Golf Club and Spa in Tucson, Ariz.

Weaver also had a stint managing Westin La Paloma Golf Club in Tucson.

Although born in Tacoma, Wash., Weaver has been in the central Willamette Valley area most of his life. Weaver has raised two sons. Keaton, 24, lives in Salem. He installs artificial turf on sports fields when he isn't coaching baseball at Crescent Valley High School. Tucker, 22, is in his senior year at Austin Peay State University in Clarkston, Tenn., where he is studying psychology. Tucker is also a left-handed pitcher on the baseball team.

Both young men were standout baseball players at Dallas High School.

Weaver skillfully navigated McNary Golf Club through the choppy waters of the golf industry for more than five years, much of his work behind the scenes.

Whalen hits record 3K time for Celtics

KEIZERTIMES/Matt Rawlings

McNary junior Ethan Whalen ran a 9:49.02 at a three-way meet with McKay and West Salem on Wednesday, Sept. 25, which was a school record time for McNary — records go back to 2000. Whalen placed fourth at the meet.

their own 20-yard line, Allen found Contreras with a shallow out rout and the speedy eighth grader raced past the entire Leslie defense for a 80-yard score.

Allen continued to have success through the air for the majority of the contest, connecting with Davien Cabrera for a pair of 30-yard gains later in the game.

"We were trying to set up the pass for the whole game," Carr said. "We knew that Leslie would have their smaller guys on the outside, so we believed that we could beat them deep. (Allen) made some really good passes today and we had some kids with some really good catches as well."

After another defensive stop to open the second half, the Panthers offense put the game away midway through the third quarter when Allen hit Contreras over the middle for a 27-yard touchdown.

Despite giving up a score with less than four seconds remaining in the game, the Claggett Creek defense was dominant for all 32 minutes, stifling the physical Leslie rushing attack.

"We did a really good job with our team tackling and rallying to the football. With (Leslie's) big guys, you have to have more than one guy making it to the ball," Carr said.
