DANCE ON CUE

Whatever style of dancing you do it is always important to look the part. Cecily Garza and Paul Venecia of Dance on Cue understand that and are ready to make anyone look great while dancing.

The new business opened in early 2019 offering clothing and accessories for any type of dance — for rehearsals or just a night on the town to your favorite club.

“We have shoe bags that are for carrying dance shoes around and towels for wiping the sweat out of your eyes,” said Cecily. “Our signature item would be the towels because they are the most practical and easy to carry. Our business is known for our clothing line because it is stylish, yet comfortable.”

The Dance on Cue clothing line is durable and holds up wash after wash. Their motto is “Made by dancers for dancers,” and it shows in all their products. “The most important part is that they are comfortable to wear,” said Paul.

Their entire line of clothing and accessories is available in the online store listed above. You can also follow them on Facebook.com/DanceonCue.
