Anneke Titus leaps into the air during a roller derby competition at The Mad House in Salem, Titus is a captain for the Cherry Blossoms.

like they have really helped me hone my skills, especially in the last couple years. (Austin) has really been helpful to me with the not only the physical part of roller derby but also the mental part. It's a very mentally challenging sport."

Austin added: "I went right to tears when I found out. I was very proud of her."

Titus is required to raise her own money to cover all travel expenses for the trip. Although the JRDA hasn't given her an idea of how much everything will cost, Titus is hoping to raise $2,000.

Luscomb highlights McNary's all-leaguers

Luscomb

Alfano

Kiefiuk-Yates

Dieker

The McNary girls soccer team had four players receive all-conference recognition for the 2019 season.

Senior Maya Luscomb was named first-team all-league for her at play at center-back. While she was an integral part to the Celtics defense this season, she also was second on the team in scoring with five goals.

Samantha Alfano, a junior who was the the Celtics other center back, was named to the second-team. Alfano had three goals on the season.

Senior forwards Caitlin Kiefiuk-Yates and Julie Dieker both received honorable mention nods. Dieker ended the year with three goals and two assists, while Kiefiuk-Yates was the Celtics leading scorer with six goals.
