Jean Rogers Barry

Feb. 1, 1920 - Oct. 9, 2019

Jean Rogers Barry recently passed away at the age of 99.

She was born Feb. 1, 1920, in Elgin, Ore., to LaNorah and Albert Rogers. She passed away the morning of Oct. 9, 2019. Her Mother died hours after her birth and she was raised by her mother's best friend, Ethel Shelton, until the age of 6. She then was taken care of by her sisters and their husbands until she was 17. At that time she lived in Bonanza, Ore., and graduated from Bonanza High School in 1938. She met Ed Barry in Coos Bay and they were married in Camp Sherman in 1942. They were married six weeks when dad was deployed to serve in the Army in World War II for three years.

It was mom's goal in life to be the best mother she could be. She achieved that goal and then some. She was the best wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. She loved working as a bookkeeper for JC Penny in Coos Bay and Henry Meyer Furniture in Salem until she retired in 1976. She missed working so much that she began a new career at Custom Photo which then became Photovision. She loved her job and the Woods family. She retired at 94 years old.

She is pre-deceased by her husband and her three sisters and brother. She is survived by her daughters and son-law Linda Lewis and Lanora and John Blake; grandchildren Stephanie Lewis, John and Crystal Lewis, Kylee and John Pedersen, Mitchell and Rebecca Blake and Molly Blake; great grandchildren Trystan and Marley Lewis, Cole and Stella Pedersen, and Oliver and Isaac Blake; nieces Anna May Lofstrom, Adelen Coffin Nygaard and nephew Tim Bullard.

She will be deeply missed by her family and many friends. At 99 years old, she was still active and sewing labels on quilts made by the Quilting Sisters for people that need comfort. Everyone loved her dearly. She was always a happy, positive and loving person. She made everyone she met feel special.

Our mom will continue to influence each and everyone of us in her absence as she did in her presence. She is where God meant for her to be: Eternally in His presence.

Donations can be made to these charities that were close to her heart. Marion County Special Olympics P.O. Box 3579, Salem, Oregon 97302, Quilting Sisters c/o Linda Lewis, 1118 Lancaster Dr. NE PMB 404, Salem, Oregon 97301, and Willamette Valley Hospice 1015 3rd Street NW, Salem, Oregon 97304.

The traffic impacts begin at 3 p.m., when Lockhaven Drive is closed to all traffic between River and McClure Street N. to establish a parade staging area. River Road North is expected to close about 5:30 p.m. between Lockhaven Drive North and Glynbrook Avenue. Prior to the parade, which is sponsored by Salem Electric, the annual Jingle Dash will take center stage.

Traffic will periodically be allowed to cross River Road at Chemawa Road before the parade begins.

The Jingle Dash 5K race starts (and finishes) at the chamber office, 4118 River Road N., and allows participants to run on River Road.

Participants are encouraged to dress up for the best costume awards by wearing their best Santa suit, reindeer horns or twinkle lights.

Parking for runners will be available at Keizer Lions Club, 4300 Cherry Ave NE. Cost is $30 for adults and $20 for kids 12 years or younger. Participants can register online at keizerchamber.com or at the Keizer Chamber office.

River Road is expected to re-open around 9 p.m. as the parade continues southbound.

Signs advising of street closures will be placed leading up to the day of the parade. Police are asking for sidewalks along River Road to be kept clear of chairs until the parade starts so that disabled citizens can travel on them.

The parade itself will have about 60 entries, which is down from prior years, but there will be lots of new faces.

"About a third of the participants haven't been part of the parade since the chamber of commerce took over," Bethell said.

She was eager to see what two schools, Chemawa Indian School and Cummings Elementary School came up with. Bethell expected the largest entry to be one associated with the TimberUnity movement.

While there will be politically-themed floats, Bethell said great care is being taken to keep everything family friendly.

School bands from McNary, McKay, South Salem and Sprague high schools will be part of the procession. The 234th Army Band will lead the parade, and The Beat Goes On, a senior marching band, is coming from Portland.

One bullet the chamber managed to dodge this year was a flood of calls asking for what to decorate floats with. Bethell credited a strong, simple theme - Toys and Tinsel - with warding off the phone calls this time around.

Lyndon Zaitz, publisher of the Keizertimes, will serve as the parade grand marshal. Zaitz is a longtime volunteer with numerous community organizations ranging from the Keizer Heritage Foundation to the Rotary Club of Keizer.

Those looking for food or warm drinks along the route shouldn't have much trouble finding some. St. Edward Catholic Church (tamales), Grand Marshal Lyndon Zaitz with Dave Walery and Danielle Bethell representing the Keizer Chamber of Commerce. Zaitz was surprised with the offer to be grand marshal in November.

Yenne & Schofield (cocoa), Willamette Valley Bank (food truck), Wells Fargo Bank, (cocoa) O'Reilly Auto (food truck), Columbia Bank (food truck), Remodeling by Classic Homes (food truck), Keizer Village Shopping Center (tacos by El Patron) Farmers Insurance (cocoa) and Copy Cats (cocoa) are all expected to host some form of treat or full-blown meals.

Artists: Design the city's 2020 holiday card

The Keizer Public Arts Commission is holding a contest for the 2020 city holiday card and the deadline is the end of January 2020.

Each year, the arts commission requests artistic submissions to be featured on the Keizer holiday card, but the group did not receive any submissions this year. Hoping to capitalize on the winter vibes, the commission is opening the contest for next year, now.

Artists of all ages are eligible to enter, one piece of artwork will be selected for the card and the artist will be awarded a $100 gift card for Michaels Arts and Crafts. The card is 4-by-6 inches and submitted artwork should be proportional to those dimensions.

Entries can be submitted to Debbie Lockhart at the Keizer Civic Center located at 930 Chemawa Road N.E. Entries are due by 4 p.m., Friday, Jan. 31.

Entry forms can be found at the www.keizer.org and must be submitted along with the artwork.
