“They were a hard-nosed group. Those kids were tough,” Ebbs said. “That was a good test for us. Our guys had to battle for everything they did. We had a few guys that hammered out some hard-nosed matches,” Ebbs said.

Burrows earned his second straight first round pin in this one, but it was 138-pounder Daniel Hernandez who helped clinch the Celtics victory with his third-round fall over Bodee Haddy.

us.” Grace Carr and Mackenzie Proctor started off the first period with back-to-back 3-pointers, but McNary couldn't muster any additional offense in the quarter after cutting the Westview lead to one at 7-6. The Wildcats went on a 12-0 run to extend their advantage to 19-6. A layup from Proctor ended the spurt with 5:30 remaining in the second quarter — McNary went nearly 10 minutes without a hoop during that stretch.

Despite a jumper from Rebekah Grimmer and a crafty scoop-and-score by Annie Leigh Besa. The Celtics still trailed 26-14 at the break.

Westview continued to build their lead well into the second half, leading by as many as 27 at one point in the final period.

But even with the lopsided defeat, Doran isn't discouraged about where her team is.

“I do think we are progressing and getting better every game, which is all I can ask out of them right now,” Doran said.

The Celtics return home to take on Central Catholic on Friday, Dec. 21 at 7 p.m.

“This community is beautiful and the whole staff is so attentive and caring! As a family member, I always want the very best for my Mom and I know that we have found an incredible place where I know that she is happy and well-cared for. The atmosphere is engaging and respectful and it is so good to know that Mom is in such good hands. I would highly recommend this community to anyone!” — HEIDI C.
