A jumper from Nepstad and a fast-break layup by Doult cut the lead to five. Grimmer and Proctor would get in on the action moments later to trim the deficit down to one.

After getting a steal before the end of the half, Doult hit Proctor for an easy layup to give McNary their first lead of the game at 23-21.

“We were pretty stagnant offensively. Their zone was definitely bothering us in the first half. We weren’t really making their defense commit, we were just passing the ball around the perimeter,” Doran said. “But we talked about how, even when we’re facing a zone, we still need to be in attack mode and make the defense step up.”

The Celtics, however, couldn’t recreate the momentum they found late in the first half when they started the third quarter. The Black Tornado scored 14 of the first 16 points of the second half to go up by 10 points with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter.

McNary was able to respond with an 8-2 run, thanks to a pair of jumpers from Nepstad — who scored all 10 of her points on mid-range shots.

Leah Doult (14) eyes the North Medford defense while keeping her dribble. Doult had 14 points and led the team with seven assists in the win.

“I have definitely been working on my 17-footers, but I was mainly just trying to find gaps in the defense and just be confident in my shot,” Nepstad said.

North Medford held onto their lead for most of the fourth quarter. But despite being down 46-40 with 2:30 remaining, the Celtics refused to give in, going on a 6-0 run to tie the game with 1:06 left in regulation.

Grimmer knocked down four free throws during the stretch after drawing fouls on the inside on a pair of Celtics possessions.

“Bekah was super helpful in the middle for us. She has been really consistent for us this year. I have always known she has had it in her, but I think she has the confidence now on the offensive and defensive end,” Doran said.

A steal by Proctor gave with less than 30 seconds remaining gave the Celtics a chance to win the game in regulation. Doult had an open look at the buzzer, but the shot fell short and the game headed to overtime with the score tied at 46.

But in the end, McNary was the more energetic team, and it showed down the stretch. The Celtics went on a 6-0 run to begin the overtime and their stifling defense proved to be a difference maker late in the game.

“We worked well as a team and our communication really helped us on defense,” Nepstad said.

McNary travels to Summit for their MVC opener on Tuesday, Jan. 14 at 6:30 p.m.

earlier loss with ease, pinning Strahm in just 34 seconds.

“He is always a competitor. People like him are vital to the success of our program,” Ebbs said.

Aldo Villavazo took fifth in the 285-pound division with his 2-1 victory in the fifth-place match.

The McNary girls wrestling program sent six wrestlers to the tournament and four of them were able to place.

Madison White placed fourth in the 235-pound division while Dalia Hernandez placed third at 190 pounds thanks to her second round pin over Dakota Gray from Forest Grove.

Caitlin Saldivar (155) and Kaylynn Villalobos (120) each placed fifth in their respective divisions after stringing three straight victories together.

McNary will be competing at the Earl Gillis Invitational in Newberg on Friday, Jan. 10. They will return to dual action on Thursday, Jan. 23 against West Salem.

McNary's Giovanni Cervantes gets the upper hand on his opponent in a 160-pound match.
