Aesthetics
Customized aesthetics, clear results

It is well known that when you look good you feel good. And when you feel good you exude a confidence that others are drawn to.

The main goal of Chrystal Clear Aesthetics in Keizer is to help improve the health, tone and texture of their client's skin. The clinic offers customized treatment suited to each person's needs.

"I offer a wide variety of results-oriented services," said owner Chrystal Patston, "but (I) enjoy specializing in anti-aging." Patston provides customized facials and other treatments designed to combine the right exfoliation, regenerating, stimulation and products that focus on the improvement needed.

"The products we use matter," said Patston. "It can be confusing and expensive to figure it out alone." She recommends one of her three lines after comprehensive discussion and assessment with each client.

Patston opened Chrystal Clear Aesthetics in 2016 after a career in the corporate world and raising her family. The clinic moved to Keizer in 2019. A certified Advanced Aesthetician, Patston is a laser technician and trained and certified in every service she provides.

The two main aspects of her service is providing results and giving confidence to her clients.

"I understand that people have choices and I welcome the opportunity to offer free consultations to discuss anything that may keep you from feeling confident in your own skin," said Patston.
