the free throw line," Doran said.

The Celtics extended their lead to 54-25 at the end of three after seven straight points from Buss late in the quarter.

As it currently stands, the Celtics are on the outside looking in when it comes to a state playoff berth. However, McNary would greatly increase their postseason chances with a monumental upset victory over South Salem. McNary hosts the sixth-ranked Saxons at 7:15 p.m. in their final regular season game on Friday Feb. 28.

"It's weird to think that this could be the last time we play together with this group. I just hope that we play hard and intense and that we are relentless for 32 minutes," Doran said.
