Mr Video
 3836 River Rd N, Keizer • 503-779-1225

The last locally-owned video and game rental store is right here in at Keizer Village (BiMart, The Thrift Store, etc.). There is definitely a need for video stores in today's culture — for film fans who are looking for films not normally found on internet sites or sidewalk boxes.

Mr. Video LLC not only carries today's most anticipated and popular films but also a wide selection of foreign films, documentaries and cult films. In fact, Mr. Video has a selection of more than 24,000 titles—that's more than Hulu, Amazon Prime and Netflix combined.

"Our store is little different than the traditional rental store," said owner Terry Ricker. "We still have action, comedy, drama—however we don't put our films alphabetically, we organized them by actors and by theme." For example, if you are looking for a Tom Hanks film, just got to the action film section, search for "H" and you'll Hanks' films dating back to the 1980s.

The store offers DVDs and Blu-Rays (they are the same price). New releases are $3.25 for a 2 night/3 day rental (an extra night's rental is $1.) The price for a regular title is $1.99 per week, or five regular rentals for eight days for only $6.99. A viewer can have their only mini-film festival! 4K films and video games are also available to rent.

Owners Terry and Lana Ricker started their video rental business 26 years ago in Germany serving U.S. military personnel stationed there. The local store opened in early 2010. They pride themselves on offering a film selection unmatched by any competitor with charming hometown service.

"People should rent with us due to our customer service, film knowledge and film selection," said Lana Ricker. "We stand out and survive in a changing industry."

Mr. Video is located at 3836 River Road N. The phone number is 503-779-1225.
