Unity BBQ draws a crowd at Willow Lake

Willow Lake Golf Center and Driving Range in Keizer hosted the Keizer Unity BBQ on Sunday, July 12. The public was invited to the event, organized by Heather and Rich Howard, owners of the Center, to discuss inclusivity, equality and bringing a positive change to society.

The program, emceed by Jake Espinoza, featured remarks by Mayor Cathy Clark, president of the West Keizer Neighborhood Association, Carol Doerfler, Lt. Andrew Copeland of the Keizer Police Department, and activist Julianne Jackson.

About 75 people attended the rally including some Keizer city councilors as well as council candidates.

Heather Howard said she decided to organize the rally after hearing of a relative's discriminatory treatment at a retail store in southern Oregon.

KAA accepting submissions

The Keizer Art Association is now accepting submissions for its virtual August show, Celebration of Flowers and Iris Contest. The show will be available for viewing on the association's website, keizerarts.com, from July 30 to Aug. 25. Intake of submissions will be via email only, through Thursday, July 30. Artists can submit entries for the Celebration of Flowers show; artists are also invited to submit entries for the official art for Keizer-FEST 2021. The theme flower is: Bitty Beauty. Artists may submit up to four entries.

Submissions for Celebration of Flowers may be 2-D (watercolor, oil acrylic, mixed media, colored pencil or fabric), 3D (carvings, modeling, welding, i.e., sculpture), photography or digital art (photos manipulated in a program such as PhotoShop). The association encourages submissions of art for the youth category (four to 14 years old).

Each submission must have its own entry form. To get entry forms for the Celebration of Flowers show and the Iris Art Contest email Cheryl Manhire at chermohr@comcast.net, or Bob Curtis at bcurtis97304@gmail.com.

There are no entry fees for this juried show, but donations to Keizer Art Association will be accepted.

COVID-19 has created a greater need for donations to the Keizer Community Food Bank. Please consider donating food or financial help.
