New leaders at Keizer, Clear Lake

Keizer Elementary and Clear Lake Elementary will be getting new principals for the 2020-21 school year. Lizi Aguilar-Nelson will be taking over the position at Keizer while Greg Watson will be at Clear Lake.

Aguilar-Nelson first began her career with Salem-Keizer Public Schools (SKPS) 30 years ago as a bilingual instructional assistant and a home school liaison. In 1994, she became a bilingual teacher working at Grant, Swegle and Lee elementary schools.

After teaching in the classroom, Aguilar-Nelson worked as an English language coach, while earning her administrative license from Portland

State University.

In 2007 Aguilar-Nelson accepted her first principal position at Richmond Elementary where she served for eight years. She then moved to Liberty Elementary and has served there for the last five years.

Aguilar-Nelson

Aguilar-Nelson is committed to strong and robust instruction for all students while building partnerships with all stakeholders.

Watson, on the other hand, is a Salem-Keizer native and a product of SKPS. Watson has more than 23 years of experience in education, serving as a classroom teacher for 13 years.

As a teacher, Watson was a member on the leadership team and hosted numerous student-teachers in his classroom. From the classroom, he joined the SKPS mentor team and supported beginning teachers across the district.

Watson

In the fall of 2018 Watson joined Chávez Elementary as the behavior specialist and administrative intern. Greg also provided support to Lee Elementary as an instructional mentor in the Spring of 2019.

Most recently Watson has served as the assistant principal at Four Corners Elementary.

The most recent principals at the Keizer and Clear Lake will be co-leading the Salem-Keizer's EDGE program in the coming year.

Sharing the bounty

Leon Search and his wife, Vickie, stopped by the Keizertimes office on the way to deliver bouquets to the residents of Emerald Pointe Senior Living Community.

The Search's zinnia patch yields an abundance of blossoms each year, so Leon and Vickie make regular deliveries to spread cheer to seniors in residence at Emerald Pointe.
