KEIZERTIMES/ERIC A. HOWALD

Anayiis Anaya (above) and Carmelo Anaya (right) cool off in the splash fountain in Chalmers Jones Park behind the Keizer Civic Center.

The splash fountain behind operates Wednesdays through Sundays on days when the temperature rises above 75 degrees. Hours are noon to 7 p.m.

The fountain will remain open through Labor Day. Social distancing is encouraged.

97303 COVID numbers still rising

By ERIC A. HOWALD
Of the Keizertimes

The number of COVID-19 cases linked to the 97303 zip code have continued to escalate since mid-July.

According to the most recent weekly report from the Oregon Health Authority (OHA), a total of 290 cases of COVID-19 have been identified in the zip code that includes all of Keizer and smaller portions of Salem.

The number of COVID-19 positive tests leapt from 151 cases to 194 between July 7 and July 15, the positive test count then jumped to 230 cases by July 22. Two weeks later, on Aug. 5, the number of cases was up to 290.

While the numbers have increased, the report does not identify the number of people in the 97303 zip code that have since recovered from the virus that continues to rock the globe. In Marion County, there have been more than 2,700 confirmed cases of COVID-19. It's among the highest number of cases in the state, but has a substantially lower testing rate (983 daily tests per 10,000 residents) than other counties seemingly taking a harder hit (Morrow, Umatilla and Malheur counties are testing between 1,200 and 1,400 people per day).

After high transmission rates in May and June, decreases were recorded in July that erased the upward trajectory. COVID-19 transmission rates are now around where they stood on May 1, according to a weekly OHA report on projections and trends.

"The results indicate that average statewide transmission increased substantially after reopening, then decreased somewhat.

It is now at the same level as in early May," the report states. "Because we do not know how adherence to the physical distancing, face covering, and hygiene guidance will change over time, it is not possible to confidently predict future transmission levels."

While Keizer businesses are not on the list of identified outbreaks of coronavirus, the Oregon State Penitentiary, Santiam Correctional Institution, Salem Hospital, NorPac, Brucepac and the Salem Amazon facility, all in neighboring zip codes, have had reported outbreaks.

It is possible that Keizer's surge in cases could be linked to those outbreaks and employees that live here, but those details are not part of OHA's reporting. Outbreaks and two deaths have been linked to Keizer senior care facilities.

Police seek suspect in Good Times break-in Keizer Police Department is seeking leads in a break-in at Good Times Grill, 122 Chemawa Road N.E.

The break-in occurred around 11:30 p.m. Monday, Aug. 3. Keizer officers were summoned to the scene at 8:15 a.m. the following morning.

Keizer police officials are not commenting on what was taken, if anything. It appeared the culprits stood on a recycling container to snip a wire leading into the building, but police also did not comment on whether cutting the connection assisted in the break-in.

Anyone with information is asked to call 503-390-3713 or email tips@keizertimes.com. Tipsters can remain anonymous.

fortunate to be in a community that supports us through thick and thin."

McNary principal Erik Jespersen took time in every ceremony to honor each of McNary's valedictorians and salutatorians in the Class of 2020.

"All these students have demonstrated a strong dedication to their academic success and have made us tremendously proud," Jespersen said.

Joe Ramiro Alvarado, who was the senior speaker for McNary, encouraged his fellow graduates to maintain a positive attitude about their high school experiences, in spite of COVID-19 cutting the year short.

"It wasn't an easy year. But, it was a year that will be remembered in school history. The coronavirus might have cut our year short, but that didn't stop us from enjoying our time together. We had a normal high school experience, going to events, dances and preparing for our next steps in life," Alvarado said. "Most importantly, we are Celtics, now and forever."

Bill Kirkwood was enlisted by the senior class to give the commencement address.

Kirkwood came to McNary as a math teacher four years ago and said that, in some ways, he feels like he's a part of the 2020 class.

In the midst of a national pandemic, Kirkwood's told the Class of 2020 that in the midst of the bad things that happen, there is still good in this world that is worth fighting for.

"When everything seems to be going wrong, and nothing is turning out the way you hoped, don't forget how good things can be. See the bad for what it is and fight for how good it could become. Don't give up hope," Kirkwood said.

Kirkwood also told the students that even though they have graduated, they will always be welcomed at McNary.

"Ask people older than you, wiser than you, for help. If you don't have any mentors in your life, I happen to know a place with a bunch of old people who know you and care about you. You're always welcome here," Kirkwood said.
