Crenshaw honored for long service

Trish Crenshaw, a city volunteer for more than 13 years, was honored by the Keizer City Council as the Volunteer of the Quarter Monday, Dec. 7.

Trish Crenshaw

first appointed by former city councilors Richard Walsh, and then by councilors Joe Egli and Kim Freeman.

"She and others put a lot of thought into the process and make sure the volunteers are welcomed into their roles," Freeman said.

The coordinating committee interviews and recommends appointments to other city-backed committees and task forces. It has also honed and revised the volunteer process over the years. During her time on the committee, Crenshaw has attended 78 of the monthly meetings, recommended 288 candidates for city service and nominated 44 other volunteer of the quarter nominees.

She was nominated by Mayor Cathy Clark and Freeman.

Councilor Dan Kohler said he knew Crenshaw long before he got into public service himself.

"I got to know her through her involvement in Boy Scouts," Kohler said. "She was always doing everything she could to make things happen."

Councilor Roland Herrera said Crenshaw was instrumental in upgrading Country Glen Park when she was a member of the Parks Advisory Board.

"Her work ethic is one to be admired," Herrera said.

United Way announces Selma Pierce fund

In response to her death, the United Way of the Mid-Willamette Valley has created the Selma Pierce Fund.

The fund – established as a donor advised fund – is a vehicle for granting sustainable financial support to nonprofit charities. The Pierce family will serve as advisors in the use of the funds. The United Way Board has approved $10,000 to seed the start of the fund.

"It is an honor to sustain Selma's legacy by creating an opportunity to invest in building innovative solutions that create lasting impact," said Rhonda Wolf, CEO of the United Way of the Mid-Willamette Valley.

Donors may contribute by:

Sending checks, made payable to United Way of the Mid-Willamette Valley, noting designation to the Selma Pierce Fund.

Quilt Guild takes cues from very weird year

The Mid-Valley Quilt Guild's annual display at the Keizer Civic Center is most definitely a reflection of the times.

In addition to the usual line-up of birds and landscapes, elements of safety guideline, quarantine and even a COVID-19 molecule all found their way into this year's Quilts at Keizer show.

The quilts are on display for viewing in the hallways of the Keizer Civic Center during normal business hours. Visitors must wear a face covering and should maintain social distancing.
