Donations needed for school Klosets

The Keizer Community Foundation, which oversees The Klosets that provides food, clothes and daily living items, is calling out for donations. The pandemic and current economic conditions has increased the need over last year.

The Klosets are stocked with donations from the Keizer Community Foundation and members of the community. Counselors at the schools help students in need to 'shop' the Kloset for food and clothes. There are Kloset locations at McNary High School, Whiteaker and Claggett Creek Middle Schools and Keizer elementary schools.

All in-person classes at the schools are canceled due to COVID-19 but students still need to get Kloset items into their hands. After donations are dropped off at McNary, Whiteaker and Claggett Creek schools, counselors deliver the items to students' homes.

Rather than random donations, specific items for specific schools are being solicited.

They include: McNary High School—Canned black, pinto or refried beans, boxed pasta and pasta sauce, bags of sugar and flour, headphones with microphone for school work via Chromebooks.

Whiteaker Middle School—Canned black, pinto or refried beans, boxed pasta and pasta sauce, rice.

Claggett Creek Middle School—Coats and jackets for boys and girls of middle school age.

Kennedy Elementary School—Boys and girls pajamas for elementary school age.

Donors can visit whirllocal.io/company/keizer-community-foundation to make financial donations online.

the addition of two college wood-bat leagues that some of the eliminated Minor League clubs would now be associated with — the MLB Draft League and the Pioneer League

The MLB Draft League will comprise six east coast teams and the Pioneer League features teams from Idaho, Utah, Montana and Colorado — Boise will be joining the Pioneer League.

Walker said that the organization hopes to have a plan for the team's future by the end of the year. He also said that the potential league the Volcanoes would play in next season won't be similar to the collegiate wood bat leagues that the MLB just established — which rules out the chance of the team playing in the Pioneer

“There will still be high level baseball in Salem-Keizer for years to come.”

— Mickey Walker

no public plans for the Volcanoes organization to end its Keizer residency, the contract also stipulates what should happen if the organization decide to end its lease.

If the club defaults, unresolved issues go into mediation. If the stadium were to be condemned, the city gets fair market value of the property and the Volcanoes club gets interest on improvements over fair market value.

CONTRACT,

The Volcanoes Club pays $1 rent on the property the stadium occupies each January.

In 2015, the Volcanoes renewed their contract for another 39 years. Rent would increase to 5.5% of gross ticket sales in 2026 and then 6% in 2031. The club is also required to use the name Keizer in all advertising and publicity.
