

Clean sweep

The annual clean-up at the Keizer Civic Center drew more than 100 volunteers Saturday, March 13. The Clear Lake Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints fed the entire crew after the hard work was done.

A: Evan Griffith, Gage Estes and Eli Case.

B: Keizer City Councilor Laura Reid (left) and Robin Barney, president of the Keizer Heritage Foundation, work at the Keizer Cultural Center, on the Keizer Civic Center campus.

C: Jane Herb.

D: McNary High School Air Force Junior ROTC members Brenda Garcia, Trinity Lehnertz and Jillian Libke (from left).

E: Luci Utaatu, Joe Utaatu, Isaiah McBride and Mariana McBride.

Photos by LYNDON ZAITZ of Keizertimes

LOCALLY OWNED
FAMILY OWNED

- All age and skill levels
- Full Pro Shop
- Buckets of balls for our Driving Range and Putting Greens
- Classes & Camps
- Individual Lessons
- Indoor Simulator
- Massage Therapy
- New things coming soon

We are COVID safe and take all necessary precautions to remain open and provide a safe place for people to get out.
— THE HOWARD FAMILY

WILLOW LAKE GOLF CENTER

OPEN 7 DAYS A WEEK • 6020 Windsor Island Rd N, Keizer
503-463-4653 • WillowLakeGolfCenter.org

We've been able to meet or exceed our clients' expectations,
EVERY TIME!

CCB#225965

FREE & TRANSPARENT ESTIMATES 503.341.3816 ♦ RighteousRenovations.com