Keizer man fired gun outside Salem PD

A 75-year-old Keizer man was arrested after firing a gun outside the Salem Police Department station Thursday, April 15.

Shortly after 9 p.m., a group of approximately 20 protesters gathered in front of the Salem Police Department station, 333 Division Street N.E., to chalk the sidewalks in front of the building.

While the protest was taking place a man drove up to the sidewalk, stepped out of the vehicle armed with a shotgun and approached the group. He pointed the shotgun at the crowd and fired one round into the air. No one was injured.

A video of the incident was posted to Twitter.

Officers were monitoring the protest from a distance so as not to incite the demonstration further. When officers saw the man, they called for more units and yelled for him to drop the
