MAVS: ‘...it’s something I want to be a part of.’

“Riley did a good job of pounding the zone and staying ahead of hitters,” Embree added.

Volcanoes starter Logan Dubbe also gave an outstanding performance on the bump, pitching 4.2 innings without giving up a run.

“Logan is a competitor who has a great arm. He hit his spots when he needed to. He pitched like a stud,” Torcato said.

After going scoreless for the first five frames, getting Dubbe off the mound was the turning point for the Mavericks offense in the top of the sixth as they got a solo home run off of Volcanoes righty
