the Celtics on top 5-0. Then, after seven straight points from Douth, Grimmer completed a three-point play to extend McNary's lead to 15-2 at the end of the first period.

McNary got in going from behind the arc in the second quarter as Kylie Nepstad and Douth hit a pair of triples in the period, giving the Celtics a 33-7 lead at halftime.

"I love when the other team plays 2-3 (zone) so I can shoot more," said Nepstad, who was 3-of-5 from beyond the arc on the night. "We shot the ball well tonight."

Doran added: "We have been shooting really well from the outside. We had a lot of time to get shots up over the last year."

While their offense was sharp for most of the night, McNary's man-to-man defense wound up giving Sprague fits all game.

"Defense is something that we can control, that is why I am always on the girls about our defense being consistent from game-to-game," Doran said.

The 16 points that the Celtics surrendered was the least they have given up on a game since 2015.

"We talked a lot before the game about getting a lot of ball-pressure and playing help-defense," Douth said.

McNary hosts West Salem at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, May 28.

It is definitely different than normal, obviously, but getting to play my last year with my friends is so amazing.
