and missed a contested triple, but got a second chance on an offensive rebound, and South Salem freshman Greg Comer took full advantage, knocking down a trey from the top of the key with 10 seconds remaining to tie the game.

"We know the importance of rebounding. We just didn't do a very good job. (South Salem) is a good team and they are going to take advantage of things like that. Give them credit, they made plays when they needed to," Kirch said.

McNary attempted to quickly inbound the ball to get downcourt, but the ball was stolen by Saxons forward Eli Gabriel, who took two dribbles and was fouled while going up for the shot with 5.6 seconds remaining. Gabriel missed the first free throw, but made his second attempt to give South Salem their first lead of the contest at 48-47.

The Celtics had a chance to win at the horn when Meithof got off a 22-footer from the corner, but the ball bounced off the back rim.

After the game, Meithof said he wished he would have been more aggressive in the second half and took responsibility for the defeat.

"That loss was on me. I need to keep my foot on the gas pedal. I need to show up when my team needs me," Meithof said.

Kirch added that his team will need to work on more late-game situations as the season goes on.

"We just need to be able to practice more. We haven't been able to work on a lot of those scenarios when we get in that situation," Kirch said. We just have to learn from it and get better."

"This community is beautiful and the whole staff is so attentive and caring! As a family member, I always want the very best for my Mom and I know that we have found an incredible place where I know that she is happy and well-cared for. The atmosphere is engaging and respectful and it is so good to know that Mom is in such good hands. I would highly recommend this community to anyone!" — HEIDI C.
