

KLIFE

PRIDE FAIR draws hundreds

For a first-of-its-kind event in Keizer, the Keizer Pride Fair did not disappoint. The festival celebrating LGBTQ+ lives, drew hundreds to people to Chalmers Jones Park behind the Keizer Civic Center Saturday, June 12. There was hardly a smile to spare as the day unfolded with live music, bubbles, rock and face painting among numerous other activities.

Submitted by Cyndi Swaney

Submitted by Dee Moore

Submitted by Dee Moore

Submitted by Dee Moore

Photo by MATT RAWLINGS of Keizertimes

Submitted by Cyndi Swaney