

Mavericks League Recap (June 10-12)

Thursday, June 10: Campesinos 8 Volcanoes 4 (Game 1)

Despite giving up four unearned runs on a pair of errors, the Campesinos defeated the Volcanoes 8-4 in game one of their doubleheader.

Campesinos pitcher Colby Neely picked up the win on the bump, throwing 4.2 innings and giving up four hits and no earned runs while striking out four.

Collin Runge went 2-for-3 at the dish with three RBIs to lead the Campesinos.

CJ Epperson was the top hitter on the night for the Volcanoes, going 2-for-3 with an RBI.

The Campesinos chased Volcanoes pitcher Joseph Serna in the top of the first after scoring three runs in the frame. After an RBI-double to left field from Rick Phillips, Runge came through with a two-run single to put the Campesinos up 3-0.

The Volcanoes responded in the bottom half of the frame when Epperson hit an RBI-single to left field to make the score 3-1.

An sacrifice fly from Patrick Chung and an RBI-double from Runge in the top of the fifth increased the Campesinos lead to 5-1. But the Volcanoes came back to cut the lead to one with three runs in the bottom of the fifth thanks to RBI hits by Tony Holton and Garrett Kueber, as well as a sacrifice fly by Nick DiBenedetto.

However, the Campesinos put the game out of reach in the top of the sixth, scoring three runs in the frame.

Friday, June 11: Senators 11 Mavericks 6

The Senators picked up their second win of the season after recording a season-high of 17 hits. Rob Brown, Taylor Travess and Malcom Dowell each went 3-for-5 at the dish for the Senators.

Brown scored on a wild pitch in the bottom of the first to put the Senators on top 1-0, but the Mavericks went up 3-1 in the bottom of the third with a three-run homer by Drake Zarate.

The Senators, however, sprung for four runs in the top of the fifth on a two-run double by Matt Lokken and RBI hits by Rob Brown and Travess, giving the Senators the 5-3 advantage.

The Mavericks tied the game in the bottom of the fifth on a pair of unearned runs, but in the top of the seventh, the Senators plated three runs, two of which coming on a two-run single by Dustin Meyer, and regained the lead at 8-5.

The Senators scored again in the eighth on an RBI two-bagger by Lokken and another RBI-hit by Travess. Jordan Drake knocked in the 11th run of the contest for the Senators on a RBI-single.

Saturday, June 12: Campesinos 11 Senators 1

The Campesinos pitching staff gave up just one run and five hits over nine innings to defeat the Senators 11-1. Rick Phillips led the Campesinos with three RBIs and a run scored.

Phillips got the Campesinos offense going in the top of the first with an RBI-double down the left field line, which was soon followed by an infield single from Collin Runge, scoring Patrick Chung from third and giving the Campesinos the 2-0 advantage.

After Matt Lokken knocked in the Senators only run of the game in the bottom of the third, the Campesinos got a run back in the top of the fifth to extend their lead to 3-1.

With it only being a two-run contest going after seven innings, the Campesinos scored four in the eighth and four in the ninth to blow the game wide open.

The other three scheduled Mavericks League games were rained out and will be made up at a later date.
