

MISSING,

Dep. Robert VandeBergh and Marine Safety Officer Jose Dominguez were traveling downriver from the search area when they heard a female screaming for help near the confluence of the Willamette and Yamhill Rivers, near Dayton.

They located the female struggling in the water and were able to get her a flotation device and bring her onboard their patrol boat. The female said she and her boyfriend had jumped from their boat to go swimming and he was still missing in the water. The boyfriend is Thomas Paul Stavrum, 51, of Lafayette. Deputies continued to look for Stavrum until just after midnight, at which time the search was suspended.

Members of the YCSO Marine Patrol and the Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue Water Rescue Team continued the search on Sunday and Monday morning but were unsuccessful.

The Yamhill County Sheriff's Office and Oregon State Police were assisted by Tualatin Valley Fire & Rescue, the Dayton and Salem Fire Departments, and Life Flight.

As additional hot weather is forecasted for the rest of this week, the Yamhill County Sheriff's Office urges swimmers to use personal flotation devices when swimming in Oregon lakes and rivers.

Fair tickets on sale

The Oregon State Fair is returning to an in-person event and will operate at full capacity Friday, Aug. 27, through Monday, Sept. 6.

All tickets including fair admission, carnival, concerts, and the new Celebrate Oregon Harvest went on sale Thursday, July 1 at oregonstatefair.org. Discounts available for tickets purchased in advance. Additional programming is in the final stages of planning and will be announced soon.

No masks, physical distancing, or proof of vaccination will be required as part of the fair events.
