VOLCANOES 10, CAMPESINOS 7

A six-run second inning catapulted the Volcanoes to a 10-7 series-opening win over the Campesinos. Tony Holton and Sam Jones had two hits apiece, and Nick Adgar had three RBIs for the Volcanoes.

After the Volcanoes already scored three runs in the second thanks to a sacrifice fly by Landen Barnes and an RBI-hit by Bryan Ruby, Adgar cleared the bases with a three-run double to give the Volcanoes a 6-0 lead.

The Campesinos got two back in the third on RBI-hits by Patrick Chung and Rick Phillips, but the Volcanoes went up 7-2 in the fourth on an RBI-groundout by Garrett Kueber.

After a solo homer by CJ Epperson made the score 8-4 in favor of the Volcanoes, the Campesinos cut the lead to one by scoring three runs in the top of the sixth. However, Holton gave his team some insurance with a two-run triple in the bottom half of the frame.

Matt McDonald got the five-out save on the hill to seal the victory.
