Keizer Fire District responded to a brush fire at the Willow Lake Pollution Control Facility on Sunday, July 11. Submitted photo

Brush fire claims two acres on Windsor Island

Shortly after 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 10, Keizer Fire District (KFD) was dispatched to a high-risk grass fire at the water treatment plant on Windsor Island Road North. Crews arrived to find a fast-moving two acre fire.

All personnel were available and crews were able to respond with two brush trucks, a heavy brush truck, a medic unit and a battalion chief.

A voter-approved 2015 equipment bond, enabled the district to invest in apparatus designed for attacking fires on the borders of urban and wildland. The new KFD rigs carry twice as much water as the old equipment and can be used to attack blazes without stopping thanks to bumper nozzles.

Traveling tuba visits Uptown

The Salem Symphonic Winds (formerly the Salem Concert Band) is making plans to reignite its concert season and joining with the Marion Polk Food Share in a fundraising effort to help make it a reality.

“We have a tuba that is visiting different area businesses, inviting the public to drop donations into it. The donations are shared equally with Marion Polk Food Share, to support their efforts to feed the hungry in the mid-Willamette Valley,” said Toni Skelton. The band’s portion of the proceeds will help cover the cost of starting up again.

For the next two weeks, the tuba will be at Uptown Music, 3827 River Road N., in Keizer. Future locations will be announced over the band’s social media feeds.

The band has been on hiatus since COVID hit. Its first concert will be Aug. 15 at Youngberg Hill Winery, tickets are on sale at salemsymphonicwinds.org. Donations to the band can also be made online.
