

Attendees enjoy the mini railroad ride at the 2018 Great Oregon Steam Up. FILE PHOTO, Keizertimes

drawing other people.

The Antique Powerland of today is vastly larger than these early get-togethers. In 1970, the Powerland park was established on the Frank Petzel farm just west of Interstate 5 on Northeast Brooklake Road. Dedicated aficionados and tinkerers established the 62-acre location to more permanently preserve Oregon's past, and share this history.

The first Steam-Up, in 1970, wasn't fancy, said Tim Dezotell, whose grandfather, Percy, was one of the founders. It featured "nothing more than a few historical steam engines and tractors run by steam and gas," Dezotell recalled.

Since that small beginning, Powerland Heritage Park has expanded in many directions, all of them consistent with that original 1970 vision of discovery, history and fun. It is now comprised of 14 museums, all of which participate enthusiastically in Steam-Up.

The museums house vintage cars loved the vintage equipment. They and show them off." From there, gatherings started

See STEAM-UP, page A16

VOLUNTEER of the Week

presented by

SHEBA DAWN

Where and how do you volunteer?

"Presently—I've continued to be available for deployment and assistance with Marion County Emergency Management, Keizer CERT, on-call chaplaincy and special event singing."

Why do you volunteer?

"I know each of us has a purpose and can make a difference in our community — one life at a time, even when I'm plumb tuckered out, it always fuels my tank. Sometimes it'll even mend my own bootstraps."

What does volunteering do for you?

"For me—it is serving God and a way to live my daily Thanksgiving to him by asking God every morning 'let me be someone's angel today.' Sometimes I know when that happens, but most of the time I don't. That request sets my course each day. It allows me to be able to be more open to hear, to see and perceive situations that are easily masked by others — or we ourselves are impaired to see by our own pressing agenda."

How would you get others to volunteer in their community?

"Explore your passions. If there is a void or need that touches your heart, there's usually something you can do to help. Ask if there is anything you can do to assist. Just don't sit on the thought — act on it. Give without expectation and thank God you were blessed to be able do so."

Keizer Chamber welcomes new board

The Keizer Chamber of Commerce installed its officers and directors for 2021-22 on Monday, July 13, at a lunch-time meeting at Log House Gardens in Keizer.

Bob Shackelford, a HomeSmart Realty Group broker, was installed for his second stint as president; he also served as president during the 2019-20 term.

Other officers installed were James Hutches of Country Financial, president-elect, Jonathan Thompson, Northwest Dental Arts, treasurer, Jane Lowery, Willamette Valley Bank, secretary and Dave Walery, past-president.

Board directors installed were: Mike Adams, Adam's Rib Smoke House, Michelle Adame, Copy Cats, April McVay, HomeSmart Realty Group, Kalynn Wright, Scott White, Markey Toomes, The Chicken Shack and Shawn Lapof, SERVPRO of West Salem.

The event was the first installation luncheon for new executive director Corri Falardeau.

The new board of directors for the Keizer Chamber were introduced at a luncheon on Monday, July 13 at Log House Gardens. Photo by LYNDON ZAITZ of Keizertimes

brainfood

sudoku

7		2	6	3			8
	8				1	7		4
		4		8			1
8	9							3
	4		8	6	3		9
6							4	5
	6			4		9
3		7	9				6
	2			1	6	3		8

Enter digits 1-9 into blank spaces. Every row must contain one of each digit. So must every column, & every 3x3 square.

sudoku answers pg A22

maze by Jonathan Graf of Keizer