

BOARD,

discussion about the club's fundraising.

Board members gave reports on the parks they each oversee. Karstetter asked Robert Johnson if a fence at Meadows Park, damaged during January's ice storm is on the schedule to be repaired, Johnson said it was. Karstetter also reported a loose handle on the play equipment at the park.

Robert Johnson's staff report: path-way paving upgrades are underway at Country Glen Park; concrete stairs at Northview Terrace have been installed. The splash fountain at Chalmers Jones Park at the civic center has been operating, though there is a chlorine shortage, Johnson has been able to purchase smaller containers, but supplies are running out. There's a possibility the fountain could be closed in the near future while the Parks Department seeks more chlorine.

Robert Johnson responded to a question from Tanya Hamilton from a previous board meeting if water pump stations along the Willamette River could become parks. He said it was possible but it was a city council decision.

Signs have been posted at city parks prohibiting cooking fires due to the high fire danger.

Who was there: Chair Dave Loudon, Gwen Carr, Wayne Frey, Tanya Hamilton, Dustin Karstetter, Matt Lawyer, Michael Pantalone, Matthew Poteet, Clay Rushton. City Council Liaison Roland Herrera.
