many cookies you can eat compared to others," she said. "I love to talk to people and hear their experiences. Every year, people tell me they really enjoyed the service they got, the support and all the food. They say that they love the route in the beautiful countryside and the quietness."

The event includes printed maps, bike repair stations, signage and cones. Keizer Police and Marion County Sheriff's Office deputy officers will patrol it for safety.

Bikers in a pinch have a support and guidance number they can call for tools, patch kits, water and transportation.

Interested persons should contact the Bicycle Club as soon as possible at www.salembicycleclub.org, for registration and Monster Cookie Ride information. They can also email Hersch Sangster at MHSANG@aol.com.

If participants pre-register before August 23, the full ride charge is $45 and they have the opportunity to order lunch.

Starting the Aug. 23, the full ride cost goes up to $55.
