

Keizer Art Association holding virtual art exhibit

The Keizer Art Association (KAA) will hold a virtual art exhibit for its September show, Colors of Autumn.

The opening of KAA's Enid Joy Mount Gallery has been delayed due to remodeling of the space at the Keizer Cultural Center.

The art association will accept virtual submissions for the show through Wednesday, Sept. 1. Entries of any medium depicting autumn's colors may be entered.

Children ages 4 to 14 are encouraged to enter the show.

The categories for the show are: 2D photography, digital art, 3D and youth art (ages 4 to 14). All work must be original, up to four entries per artist are permitted.

Entry fee for Colors of Autumn is $5 per entry for both art association members and non-members alike.

Award winners of this show will be put on display at the Keizer Civic Center during the month of October.

Though there not be a reception, winners will be announced on keizerarts.com on Saturday, Sept. 4.

For more information for entering the show visit KAA's website.
