over it. The foil is used as a base for the clay.

The clay is then set right on top and smoothed out to the desired look for the character. Once that is all done, they leave the clay to dry and then paint it.

Crosby loved helping the campers with their projects and watching them socialize with each other, despite the kids not knowing each other. "I just want them to have fun and be creative. Then also making some friends with the people who are in here," Crosby said.

Cat of the Week

Name: JASPER
Age: 7

HISTORY: Jasper is a black domestic short hair mix. He was left at the doors of the shelter randomly one day. One thing that makes Jasper stand out from other cats is that he is double polydactyl, which means that he has thumbs on both of his paws.

PREFERRED HOME: This cat is very affectionate towards older people but does not do well with younger kids or pets.
