

Reconciliation, redistricting, & riding horses

A sit-down with Rep. Kurt Schrader

Even when he's living across the county in the nation's capital, Representative Kurt Schrader promised that he's a loyal Keizertimes reader.

When asked how he stays up to date on Oregon's most pressing issues, Schrader responded,

"The Keizertimes!"

Schrader represents Oregon's 5th Congressional District,

See SCHRADER, page A2

NEWSTAND PRICE: $1.00/ISSUE

SUBSCRIBER ADDRESS:

By JOEY CAPPELLETTI, Of the Keizertimes

The EASIEST crime of the century

By JOEY CAPPELLETTI
Of the Keizertimes

Last week, two men piled thousands of dollars worth of electrical wire into their Lowe's shopping carts before strolling past a powerless security guard and driving off with the stolen merchandise.

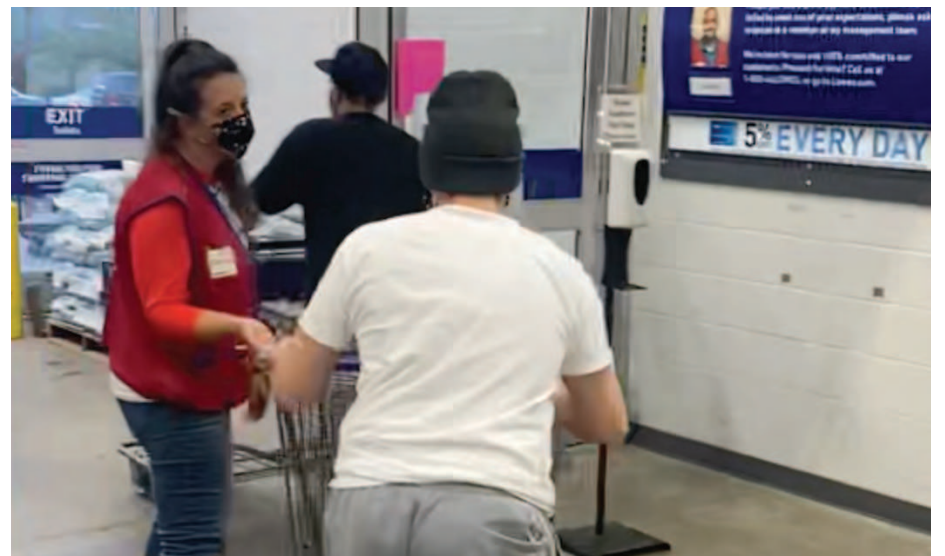

The crime took place one of Keizer's busiest parking lots in broad daylight.

A video of the incident, taken by another customer on Aug. 25, has received close to 25,000 views on Facebook and hundreds of angry comments.

"It was so blatant, that's what riled me up," said Andrew Sullivan, who filmed the incident. "They were just strolling through the parking lot, just riding the carts."

The stolen merchandise according to Sullivan, who is an electrician, is Romex

See CRIME, page A8

A Lowe's employee asks two men to stop as they leave without paying for two carts of Romex wire. Video Stills courtesy Andrew Sullivan