midfield, Fisher sent a through ball to Yasheth Arciniega Rivera, who was sprinting up the left side and lined herself up for a shot-on-goal. The attempt was stopped by a West Albany defender, who tried to clear the ball, but her pass was stolen by Fisher.

With a large amount of open field, Fisher took one dribble and then fired a rocket into the upper right-hand corner of the goal to extend McNary's lead to 2-0.

"I had a pretty big open space. No one was on me and the ball came right to me, so I was like 'might as well take the shot.' I placed it pretty good," Fisher said.
