engaged as the Celtics continued to feed the hot hand.

“When Emily gets going she is hard to stop. She is excellent. If she is on, we will keep feeding her,” DeMello said.

An ace from Bella Rodriguez and a kill from Maddox Snider allowed McNary to tie the set at 21-all. But the Celtics couldn't finish the game strong as West Salem scored the next four points to take the 25-21 game two win.

“An asset that this team has is that they are strong servers. But tonight we didn't serve as aggressively as we typically do, so we will need to turn that around,” DeMello said.

Despite being down 2-0, McNary came out firing to start the third set thanks to kills by Snider and Lettenmaier, putting the Celtics on top 10-4. But West Salem took advantage of a number of errors and miscues by the Celtics and came back to tie the game at 17-all.

After both teams went back-and-forth to make the score 20-all, West Salem closed the match with a 4-1 run to walk away with the straight-set victory.

“One of the hardest things about competing in volleyball is the mental aspect of the game and moving on as quickly as you can. When you're adjusting to a new lineup, it takes time,” DeMello said. “We need to reassess where we are at and break down what we are doing well and where we need to grow.”

McNary returns home on Tuesday, Oct. 5 to take on McKay at 6:30 p.m.

a small, family business. It's a friendly way to get things done — dealing with one person through the whole purchase and installation process.”

A customer will find low prices (not cheap, but low prices). With low overhead, Jason is able to pass the savings on to his customers.

“We hold true to our word,” Jason added. “We are an honest business. Our installers arrive when promised.”

Aside from floor coverings the store also offers carpet and vinyl remnants at huge savings. They also have formica for countertops and carpet cleaning.
