

Feel-Good STORY

Saluting the people that make us proud of our community presented by

familiar scenes, but there is obviously more singing and everyone gets a little more character depth. The music brings a new edge to it without taking away from the original," Auvinen said. "Having the additional elements to the production adds that extra flair to it. It makes it not only more fun to watch, but more to participate and perform in."

"The musical is just different enough that we have felt no connection to the movie. It was pretty easy to separate ourselves," Cavanaugh added.

Whether it be singing, dancing or acting, audiences can expect the full range of talent of the McNary performing arts departments will be on display for this show.

"People are going to have the time of their life. It's so funny, it's so interesting to watch, and there are a lot of really talented people on this stage, as well as backstage and in the pit. People will have a blast," Auvinen said.

Blake Felbob plays the role of Santa.
