

shots," Kirch said. "But we also missed some easy looks."

"They were the right shots. Most of them were open. We just got to hit them," Copeland added.

Despite some of the team's offensive woes, Kirch praised the play of Roth. The junior shooting guard was 6-of-11 from the field and hit a pair of 3-pointers.

"That was the best game he has played. He can certainly score the ball, but it was a matter of reading the defense and being under control with his body. You could see his athleticism, his length and the different ways he was able to score," Kirch said.

Even after defeats in their first two conference games, Kirch believes his team is on the brink of success.

"I was impressed with our competitiveness and toughness. With the exception of a couple little areas, we are right there. We just have to keep getting better and keep trusting one another. The loss is disappointing, but we have definitely seen some progress over the last couple games," Kirch said.
