The Celtics took part in a two-way dual meet at West Salem High School against West Salem and Cascade High School. In the meet, the three schools competed against each other with results being used to determine two dual meets.

McNary's men lost to Cascade 80-55 and West Salem 112-28. West Salem defeated Cascade 89-46. The women lost to Cascade 70-39 and to West Salem by a score of 102-20. West Salem's women beat Cascade 88.33-38.67.

Even with the difference on the scoreboard, McNary had 14 top-3 finishes, and recorded 18 personal records.

Celtic athletes took first in four events.

Caleb McCoy won the 400-meters with a personal record time of 53.69 seconds. Zachary Harrington also set a personal record at 56.72, good enough for fourth place.

They swept all three spots in the mens 3000-meters. Josiah Zieseemer finished first at 11 minutes, 30.47 seconds, a personal record. Derek Jones' 11:30.50 was also a personal record, and third place finisher Shawn Sunn has a season record 12:43.93.

The mens 4X400 relay team of Pawit Potisuk, Axel Zapien Sanchez, Johann Singh Sanchez and Caleb McCoy won with a time of 3 minutes, 45.07 seconds.

The final first place finish for the Celtics came from Mary Jespersen in the long jump. Her leap of 14 feet, 2.25 inches was a personal record. So was her triple jump leap of 28 feet, 6.5 inches, good enough for second place.
