

Portland Inquirer Presents Pictures of Colored Soldiers from the Fighting Fronts of the World

AT RISK - SOUTH SEA ISLANDS---From a Coast Guard-manned LST, Colored Troops roll out the barrel of oil for American Planes and mechanized equipment. (Official OWI Photo)

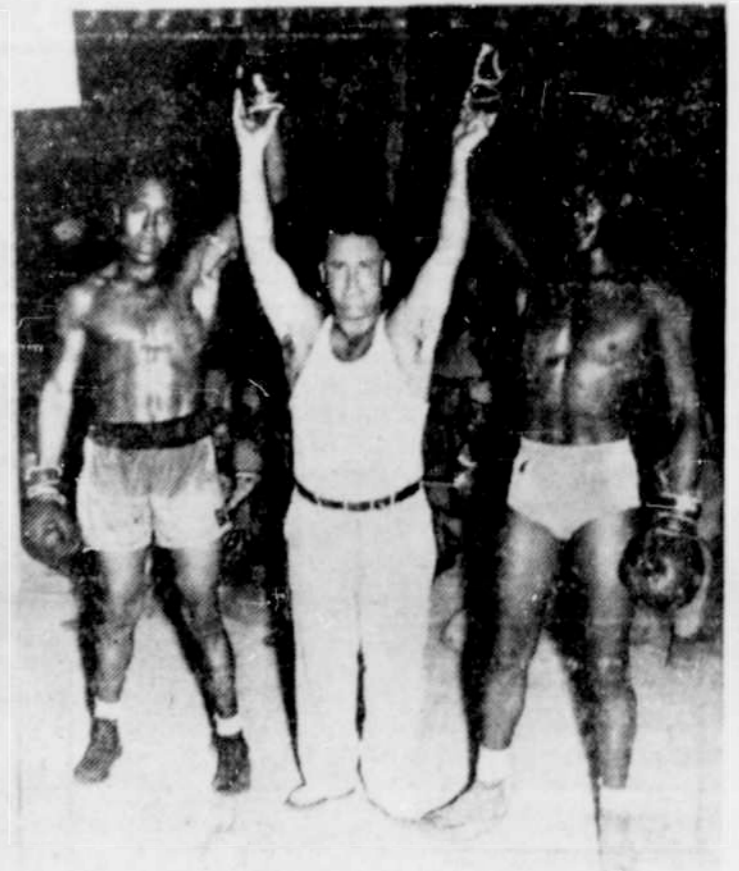

So. PACIFIC - Edwin Sackie, (right) Marine, drives out home during match with "Slim" Hill, USN as referee Virgil Ward looks on. Sackie won (Off. USPC Photo)

ENROUTE TO AUSTRALIA - Troops enjoy a little musical relaxation. Fighting under the flag of the Netherlands, soldiers of many races are included among the troops now fighting on battle fronts around the world. (Below) a larger group aboard the same transport. The multi-racial composition of one unit is shown here. (Off. OWI Photo)

FOR VICTORY
...keep buying
Defense Bonds

So. PACIFIC - USPC heavyweight champion James Simmons (left) Mel. V. Ward (center) challenger Marion Marshall. Its a draw.

HOMEWARD BOUND FROM AFRICA AND SICILY - This colored sailor is doing his laundry. (OWI)