NEGROES GO OVER

Negroes Surveyed

There has been in Portland for the past couple of weeks a man and scholar in the person of Mr. Robert E. Colbert conducting a survey of the Negroes. Mr. Colbert is here on a Fellowship from Howard University and has been visiting other cities in the West to determine whether the older residents of these cities resent the importation of other Negroes into their community. The answers he received to his guestions here in Portland were many and varied. Opinions differed, certain situations were singled out but in the main they all seemed to agree on the issues involved. We reprint with permission one of the returned questionnaires. This is the most complete of all the replies so far received and covers the questions thoroughly.

QUESTIONNAIRE

"The Attitude of Older Negro Residents Toward Recent Negro Migrants."

- 1. Name: Oliver E. Smith.
- 2. Address: 3411 SW First. 3. Occupation: Supervisor of Jan-
- itors, Commercial Iron Works. 4. Length of Residence: 7 years continuous. Since 1924 except away to school. Residence in greater metropolitan area since early childpurchased nearly $1,000,000 worth hood.

> 6. Please give a sketch of racial conditions as they existed prior to the influx of migrants.

There was no apparent race problem before migration because Negroes were seemingly content with the status quo which was The drive began with a public more or less service position (i. e.) bell hop, shoe shiners, porters, waiters, bartenders and the social elites were made up of these and which featured Muriel Rahn, the feminine counterpart, maids, Broadway singing star, late of the laundress, cooks, etc. So, therefore there were no apparent racial conflicts due to this affect.

> 6. What changes in racial conditions have you observed, favorable or unfavorable, since the influx?

War Finance committee and Mrs.

7. Do you approve or disapprove Negro division. This effort netted of the increased Negro population? Give reasons?

I definitely approve to the increasing population. It brings out the schools of thought Negroes from everywhere possess. It shows the Negro HAS the same factions as any other American and creates some defense to protect what he has claimed was rightly his before the migration.

8. What effect on post-war conditions of permanent residents do you think this influx of migrants will have?

I think 20 or even 30% of the migrants will remain here, as this is the promised land to them. Some of the older people will leave and a fewer progressive people will eventually be the bulk of the Negro population, but 'Uncle Tom" will be with us for some time.

Oliver E. Smith is the only Negro in the history of the state of Oregon to almost win the nomination for State Senaton Centrary to general opinion he was not almost elected but was almost given the chance to be elected at the General Election Nov. 7.

Mr. Colbert was born in Philadelphia, Pa., but left there when yet a child and was educated in the public schools of Indiana, later attending Virginia Union University where he received his A. B. degree in the class of 1930. He received his versity in the summer semester of 1944 and was granted the Fellowship on which he is now traveling. Mr. Colbert intends to return to the East and take the chair of History in a High School in the school system of Pennsylvania.

MAYOR TABOOS DISCRIMINATION

One year $5.00

A meeting primarily designed to offer constructive suggestions for assisting the Negroes in this area was held in the Federal Court room in Portland on Friday, August 11. The meeting was attended by the mayors of both Portland and Vancouver, representatives of churches, business and social agencies at the request of Federal officials. Although petty bickering was indulged in by some of those present, there were several constructive suggestions offered.

The most pertinent statement of the session was made by the Hon. Mayor Earl Riley concerning discrimination in the government of the City of Portland. He stated, "There has never been any discrimination in the city government and there never will be. I invariably pick the name at the top of the list of eligibles (Civil Service) regardless of who it is though I could pick any one of the first three."

This statement by His Honor, the Mayor of Portland, was significant in that since there were no Negro representatives in the city government, the question arose as to whether they were barred or not.

Editor's Note: This puts it squarely up to the Colored people of the locality, it is plain that either the Negroes were not interested enough in their own welfare to take any of the many examinations or else were not qualified to pass.
