

PORTLAND PATTTER

By M. SAWYER

Say have you been around Bird's lately, Sundaes on Sunday, — or any other day for that long cool drink. Looks like big things are on the fire there too. If it materializes (25c word) the Inquirer will be the first to bring you the news.

We told you that Air Base was getting more popular, seems like some other people think so too, judging from the number of young ladies that went to the last dance out there. By the way, you should also see the WACS.

Seems like every thing leads to food when a party starts and a good place to be led to is the J. & M. Bar-B-Q down at Broadway and Interstate. They cook up some swell 'eatin down there.

Have you ever been to Guilds Lake? No? Well then you have missed one of Oregon's top-notch Boogie-Woogie exponents. Not so much to look at but, listen to, ooom my. Just plays for his own amusement after a hard day in the shipyard, but does he amuse himself. Asked why he did not exhibit his wares in Portland, says there is not any place to go. Watch out Boogie-woogie artists, we are going to fool him into the city one of these nights and spring him on you un-awares.

Remember Coddie Mae and Daisy Mae, they used to serve meals in their home on Benton Avenue, well, they are in Fraternal Hall now. Yep, same meals on a bigger scale. Might be a nice place to go for dinner one of these nights. In fact I am sure it would be.

Herb Lewis certainly is a modest fellow. He goes around with that Softball team of his just winning trophy after trophy and never a word about them. His team won a trophy for second place in Invitation Tournament here and went on to Seattle to win the Northwest Championship, yep, another trophy, and will soon be going to Cleveland, Ohio, to try for the National trophy. Tell you what we will do, first time we catch one of those trophies unwrapped, we will get you a picture of it. That is, if this darn camera will work.

Real nifty little hair dresser or should I have said cosmetologist down at La Vivienne. Easy on the eyes, pleasant, intelligent talker and the ladies say she is A-number-one in her work. If you catch her in a spare moment, you will hear some very pertinent and up to the minute observations on any subject you choose. This is for the benefit of the ladies, boys, so don't get all het up as the little lady's husband is right in Seattle and she visits him very often.

Why doesn't somebody get smart and put up a bowling alley or a roller skating rink around here? We certainly could use one. What you too? Howse about talking up the idea—might have some takers.

Who's going to do what with that lot at Williams and Cherry, we hear it is going to be an hotel. Nice goin', if that is the right steer. We need a milly swing, with the rite pub and a rendezvous par excellence. Hope that's what it's going to be, don't you?

ARMY AIR BASE NEWS

By Cpl. Edward Perkins

The monthly dance of Squadron C. Portland Army Air Base, was held August 15 at the base gymnasium. Music was provided by the Air Base, which pealed off some sweet and torrid tunes.

The dance was followed by a bit of competition of appetites and the hungry ones really enjoyed the delicious ham sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and soft drinks.

Squadron C. wishes to extend its thanks to all the lovelies who gave up their time in order that the boys could have such an enjoyable evening. Thanks also to those friendly Portlanders who open up their homes and hearts to us. We really appreciate your good hospitality.

Portland's hero, Lt. Deiz, was the honored guest of Squadron C. His impromptu lecture was one of the highlights of the evening.

"Our Little World Series," will be played by the Air Base Bombers for championship of base beginning August 30th. There will be seven games.

Squadron C.'s soft ball team won a trophy for runner up of the base. The next monthly dance will be Sept. 17th.

YOUR POLITICS Opportunity Knocks

By CLIFFORD C. WALKER

Two thousand well organized voters could win the election in November for any candidate of their choice. The strength of these votes lies in the fact that the two major political parties in this area have shown a decided evenness in the number of registered voters. Between Democrats and Republicans now less than 200 difference.

Here is an opportunity the negro voter cannot miss—the opportunity organized group knowing what it to vote as a cohesive group, a well is about.

How can you, a voter and vital member of a potential winning or losing force, answer these questions.

Are you intered in becoming a force for the ideals in which you believe?

Do you know what party or what candidates will uphold your ideals?

Do you belong to a group of voters that is interested in you?

Did you know there is a Democratic Club and a Republican Club here?

Have you prepared yourself to vote?
