Miss Gertie May Griffin who has been a visitor here for the past three months is leaving Monday, Oct. 9th for Wilton, Arkansas. While here Miss Griffin resided 413 Cottonwood St., Vanport.

Miss Helena Searcie, one of the three Negro women employed at the Chase Bag Factory, was pleasantly surprised by a birthday party given her while she was busy at work by the employees of the Chase Bag factory. A good time was enjoyed by all.

This factory is located on Nicolai St.

Miss Helena Searcie leaves today for a short vacation in the state of Washington. Though Miss Searcie will only be gone a short time she intends to visit Longveiv, Winlock and also Kelso. A whirlwind trip so to speak.

SEATTLE COAST GUARDSMAN IN 4 PACIFIC INVASIONS

Coast Guardsman Randolph A. Stills, steward's mate, of 707 Dearborn Street, Seattle, Wash., is pictured aboard his Coast Guardmanned LST, which participated in four South Pacific invasions. He saw action during assaults on Treasury Island, Bougainville, Green Island and Saipan; travel 41,000 miles in 15 months.

in a write-in campaign by which he was given the Democratic nomination to succeed as public prosecutor. Again his record justified the confidence in him which is shared by Democrats and Republicans alike, and the spontaneous movement to elevate him to the Circuit Court bench is supported by leading members of both political parties. The Oregon Democrat endorses this movement and takes pride in recommending the support of James R. Bains by every Democratic voter in Multnomah county.

Mr. Bain served in the first world war and is an active member of the American Legion. He has been prominent in the practice of law in Portland for many years and enjoys the confidence and esteem of his fellow attorneys throughout the entire State. He is eminently qualified to fill the position to which his friends have nominated him and his long experience as district attorney has acquainted him with social problems so that he may be better fitted to temper justice with mercy and thereby become the ideal judge of human frailties as well as of the letter of the law.

Youngsters enrolled in the Mill Plain community center morning dramatic class will appear in this week's Junior Matinee broadcast over KVAN Friday at 1:45 p. m. in a children's play adapted for the radio by Ray Hamby, entitled "Trade Ins." The play concerns a little puppy who trades his young owner's roller skates for a bunny's ears because he believes rabbits are more popular pets than dogs, only to discover that his master loves him as he was.

Appearing in the play are Lee Onn Gilson, Shirley Roper, Lu Anne Hols, Harvey Bjerke and Eddie Bezanson. Barbara Spencer, known to KVAN listeners as "The Silver Lady," acts each week as narrator.

The programs are directed by Ray Hamby, radio director for the recreation association, and presented in the lounge of the USO, Seventh and Broadway. Youngsters are invited to join the studio audience, but must be seated by 1:30 p. m., Hamby said. The program is in classrooms in the Vancouver public schools.

Next week the USO Talent Paal, composed of children enrolled in schools without recreation association dramatic classes, will be featured on the matinee.

A smoker sponsored by the Bagley Downs Athletic Club is scheduled for Tuesday, October 17 at 8 p. m. at the community center, Harvey Haynes, athletic director at the Bagley Downs gymnasium, said today.

The card is the first to be presented by the new club whose membership totals 250 boys.

Basketball, volleyball, boxing and touch football teams are being organized from the club membership and regular league games are to be scheduled in the near future, Haynes said.

The newly organized Bagley Downs Girls' Athletic Club will

Any motorcyclists meandering around your menage? Motorcycle riders who are looking for another steed are reminded by OPA that they should investigate thoroughly the ceiling price of their favorite means of locomotion before buying. There are ceiling prices on used motorcycles—even those released by the Army.

(Editorial in The Oregon Democrat August Issue)

In Oregon the judiciary has been removed from the realm of partisan politics because the people realized that the administration of justice should be free from any taint of bias or prejudice. This wise move permits members of all political parties to join in a neighborly effort to select as candidates for judge men whose ability and record have earned the confidence of voters regardless of the party affiliation. It was under such happy auspices that at a recent gathering to place James R. Bain in nomination for judiciary honors 203 of the 715 present were prominent Democrats of Multnomah county.

Mr. Bain was nominated to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late Judge Robert Tucker, who had presided in Department 3 of the Circuit Court. There was unanimous agreement that of all those whose names were considered Mr. Bain was most deserving of the honor because of his exceptional record as district attorney during the past ten years, his recognized ability as a member of the Oregon bar, his activity in all matters affecting the public welfare, and his long residence in Portland. It was high tribute to his standing as a citizen and one which will be unqualifiedly approved by his thousands of friends and admirers.

While Mr. Bain was elected district attorney ten years ago as a Republican, he chose to conduct that office on a nonpartisan basis and appointed a number of Democrats as his assistants. This broad-minded attitude, coupled with his fine record, resulted two years ago

SCHOOLS ...are in Session!

WATCH OUT for CHILDREN!

DRIVERS—Be on the alert! With schools now in session, students will be a constant responsibility. You'll find them everywhere. Be ready to meet any emergency. Drive carefully . . . Drive Safely!

STUDENTS—Be alert, too! Obey traffic signals, "play safe." Make it a rule to be home by 4 p. m. . . avoid the rush hours. HERE ARE RULES THAT EVERYONE SHOULD FOLLOW!

1. LOOK FOR THE DESTINATION CARD, get on the right bus or trolley.
2. Have correct fare ready.
3. If you transfer, hand it in open. If a pass, show all of it.
4. After boarding a vehicle, move to the rear, make room for others.
5. Be ready to get off before reaching your corner.
6. Stagger your shopping hours. Shop between 10 a. m. and 3 p. m.

Cooperation by everyone will help improve traffic conditions.
