GAY COCKTAIL PARTY ANNOUNCES MARRIAGE

Friday evening the home of Mrs. Ruby Harding on 3344 S.E. Yamhill St. was the scene of a gay cocktail party to announce the marriage of her granddaughter, Mrs. Ruby Irene Fletcher to Mr. John Benjamer Jr. One hundred and fifty guests were present to meet and congratulate the happy couple during the hours from 7:00 p. m. on until a late hour. Mrs. Hardin was assisted by her daughter and mother of the bride, Mrs. Ussie Mae Lewis. Mr. and Mrs. John Benjamer Jr. were quietly married Friday afternoon at four o'clock.

COUPLE CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Lula Ford honors her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers, with a reception on their Golden Wedding anniversary. She was assisted in receiving the guests by members of Mrs. Bowers lodge. Mrs. Hayward of the Household of Ruth lodge had charge of the guest book, Mrs. dna Cain received the guests. Mrs. L. Blackburn, Mrs. Nickols, members of the Mt. Hood Chapter O.E.S. had charge of the gifts. Daughter Elks Mrs. Johnnie Mae Evans, Mrs. Irene Duke, Mrs. Minnie Turner assisted in the dining room. Mrs. Guy Neal also assisted.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers received their guests amid a setting of white and yellow gladiolus which was the color theme throughout. The dining table was covered with a lovely lace cloth with a center piece of white and yellow candles where gold colored punch was sipped in honor of the couple.

The gifts were many so I shall just speak of a few namely a lovely mirror in a gold frame from the Household of Ruth, Past Matron Gold Star pin from Mt. Hood chapter Order of Eastern Star. A check for fifty dollars from the Dahils Temple No. 202 of Daughter Elks. A set of gold trimmed glasses and pitcher, gold tea set among the many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowers were married at Nashville, Tenn. August 31, 1895. They have lived in Portland many years. They have one daughter, three grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

PASTOR'S WIFE ILL

Mrs. J. F. Smith, wife of Rev. J. F. Smith, pastor of the Zion A.M.E. church on Williams Ave. is ill and she is now at the Vanport City Hospital. Her many friends she has made since residing in Portland and all members of the Zion A.M.E. church wish Mrs. Smith a speedy recovery.

Mrs. America Meets the War

War-time controls over production have been lifted from many consumer goods that Mrs. America has been anxiously looking forward to buying when the war is over. Radios, refrigerators, stoves and electric fans are among the items which manufacturers can now produce without any limitations on number. Controls over other items will be probably lifted very soon. When the time comes for Christmas shopping, it is expected the stores will be well stocked with many things which have been scarce during the war years.

NYLONS PROMISED

What Mrs. America has probably missed more than anything else . . . nylon stockings . . . are promised by Christmas time, too. There's good news also for milady who has been concerned about her figure. Two-way stretch girdles should be back on the market within 60 days. Other clothing items should be much more plentiful within a short time . . . both cotton and wool garments.

Price controls on clothing will continue to insure better-quality clothing at reasonable prices.

Restrictions on the distribution of milk, light cream, buttermilk and chocolate milk drinks have been removed, although whipping cream remains on the restricted list. The War Food Administration was able to remove controls because of the high level of milk production during recent months.

Price controls have been suspended for imported wines and imported distilled spirits such as brandy, rum and cordials. However, Scotch and other imported whiskey remain under price control. The suspensions were made because the liqueurs have been selling below ceiling prices.

SUGAR AND FATS STILL SCARCE

Although the end of the war has brought improvement in the supplies of many war-scarce items, there are some shortages that will be with us for a while. One of them is fats and oils. Mrs. America should continue to save used kitchen fats and turn them in to her butcher. Waste fats are used in making many commercial products . . . such as medicine, lubricants and soap. Your butcher will give you two red points and four cents for every pound turned in.

Sugar is still scarce too. But here are a few hints from the Department of Agriculture on how to make a little sugar go a long way. Sweet hot breads can take the place of cake, pastry and other rich desserts that will satisfy the family's sweet tooth. There are several tempting variations of hot biscuits that will fill the bill. For instance, use biscuit dough to make pinwheels, with a filling of chopped raisins or dates, spices and sugar, cocoa and sugar, jam, or finey chopped raw apple with cinnamon.

TIRES STILL RATIONED

Although gasoline rationing has ended, now passenger car tires will continue to be rationed until the supply improves. Local War Price and Rationing Boards will grant purchase certificates on the basis of importance of occupational use of cars for which tires are needed. The Boards may also issue a limited number of certificates for tires for cars used for non-occupational purposes in hardship cases. A new provision also permits Boards to grant certificates for tires to be used on house trailers that serve as living quarters.

THE HOME most important OF THE BIG 4

The 4 big businesses that are building a greater Oregon are:
1. AGRICULTURE 3. MERCHANDISING
2. MANUFACTURING 4. THE OREGON HOME

* The Oregon home is big business. It represents a big investment, consumes enormous supplies of food, clothing, merchandise and every imaginable kind of service. Nowhere else in the world has home life reached a higher degree of desirability than in Oregon. Perhaps that is why 55% of Oregon homes are owned by the people who live in them. (On the farms it is 85%). Of course, Oregon homes are well electrified. PGE's low-cost electricity is a big aid and incentive in home betterment.

* Portland General Electric leads the way in progressive industrial development
