RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

The BETHELITE CLUB
Friday evening, Jan. 28, 1946, the Masonic Hall, 116 N. E. Russell Street, was the scene of a party given by the Bethelite Club of Bethel A.M.E. Church in honor of their eighteenth anniversary. The hall was beautifully decorated with bouquets of flowers.

Refreshments were served from four lovely tables presided over by members of the club. Each table was differently decorated and prized awards were made by Mrs. McGuire: First prize went to table No. 2—Mrs. Dixie Mott, Chairman; Second prize went to table No. 4—Mrs. Ruby Maddox, Chairman; Third prize went to table No. 3—Mrs. Lucile Wilson, Chairman; Honorable mention went to table No. 1—Mrs. Annabelle Harris, Chairman.

Programs of songs and speeches was the feature of the evening. All the members of the Club were beautifully gowned in the pale yellow acacia helped to make up the setting. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white tulle over white silk and carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and white chrysanthemums. Her maid of honor, Miss Harriette Brown wore a pink silk gown covered with tulb and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

The groom wore conventional black with white carnation buttoniers. The best man, Mr. Merle Jefferson wore black also and wore white carnation button-airs. The train bearer, Shirley Bradwell was the bride's youngest sister and she wore a long white silk dress. Mr. A. Odem played the wedding march and Mr. R. Daniels Jr. gave piano selections during the evening. Mrs. M. Jefferies was the hostess for the affair.

Miss Naomi Daniels and Miss Josephine Searcie served ice-cream and cake and delicious punch to the guests at the reception. The table was artistically decorated with a white lace table cloth, lovely flowers and candles and gorgeous three trimmed white and silver wedding cake graced the beautiful table.

Practical gifts were received by the couple who wish to thank their friends for them. Also a bridal shower was given in honor of the bride on Thursday, January 11th, at the home of Mrs. C. Simms, the bride's mother-in-law. The hostesses were Mrs. A. Odem and Mrs. Virginia Ledbetter. Ice cream and cookies were served during the afternoon. Many household gifts were received.

Vanport News

By Samuel G. Whitney

The Vanport Community Church had a packed audience at their 11:30 service on last Sunday. Three members were added to the church. One being a serviceman who just returned from Manila. The Victory Four Quartette composed of four servicemen recently released from the army sang a few nice selections. All four had been in overseas duty for some time and returned home without a single injury.

The Choir had their regular monthly business meeting at the close of church service, during which time they accepted the resignation of their Choir Director, Mr. Homer Zackery, who left Tuesday evening for Bremerton, Wash., where he will spend a few months and then proceed to his home in Sioux City, Iowa. Mr. Zackery had been Choir Director almost two years. Choir members expressed their regret in seeing him leave. He was also Men's Adult Bible Class teacher.

Mr. W. M. Collier, Superintendent of the Vanport Community Sunday School stated at teachers meeting Tuesday night that he will turn in his resignation Sunday as he is leaving Feb. 1 for Chicago to join his wife and daughter. It is possible that they may make their home in Chicago. Mr. Collier seems to have been somewhat sorry to state that Sunday will be his last Sunday with a group he has worked with so long that he has come to love.

The Senior Usher Board met at the home of the President, Mrs. E. M. Davis, 2608 Cottonwood Street, Apt. 600 on Saturday evening, Jan. 19, at 7:30 o'clock. After the meeting refreshments were served. Those present were the Pastor, Rev. B. T. Carey, Mr. George Warren, Mrs. Deloney. New members, Miss Willie Mae Sturmes, Mr. C. J. Allen, Mrs. Beatrice Ellis. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Ellis, 402 Cottonwood Street, Apt. 1000. Miss L. Whitfield, Sec'y., Mrs. V. Deloney, Ass't. Sec'y.

If you have news of interest about yourself, your friends, your church, your club or your community, send it in. The Portland Inquirer will be glad to publish it for you. This is your paper, use it. If you have a business, advertise it through the columns of this paper also. Advertising always pays. All news must be in not later than Tuesday evening, 8:00 o'clock for publication in the coming issue.
