Mrs. William Graves, 139 N. McMillen St., was the proud recipient of a hand painted cocktail set for six. The gift was from her daughter, Miss Blanche Graves, who is a senior at Bennett college in North Carolina.

Misses Inez and Ruby Freeman of Longview, Wash., were in town Saturday evening to hear the concert by Paul Robeson. The young ladies are sisters of Mr. Oliver E. Smith.

Entertainments and Religious Activities

Mrs. Lucille Wilson was hostess last Monday evening for the Bethelite Club. Mrs. Wilson was assisted in caring for her guest by her mother, Mrs. L. Polk.

RECEPTION

Saturday evening, following his concert, Mr. Paul Robeson, was honored guest at a reception held at Portland's International home. The Portland Inter-racial choir sang. About two-hundred guests were there to greet Mr. Robeson.

Paul Robeson spoke praise of such work "as International House and Inter-racial groups working together, and said, "Our soldiers fight for freedom was not in vain."

The reception committee was Mrs. W. Smith, of Gresham, Ore., chairman; Mrs. Roy Gage, Miss Mable Downs, Miss Ruth Haefner, Mrs. Mary Duncan, who presided at the tea table, Mrs. Stanley Chin, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Sheehan, Mr. George Thomas, Robert Hungerford, John Eckert and H. D. Wilkins. Others of the group seen there, were Dr. and Mrs. D. N. Unthank, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Joe Reed, Mr. and Mrs. L. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Smith, Mr. Samuel G. Whitney of Vanport City, Oregon; and Mr. Mark Smith of Vancouver, Wash.

A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION FOR THE SCALP

The hair roots are in the scalp. The condition of your hair does often depend heavily on the natural health of your scalp. Years ago, Dr. Carnot invented a medicated tar formula called Carboneol which is mixed with Sulphur, Resorcin and Balsam of Peru. Carboneol is such a strong, powerful antiseptic and does such fine work in helping an itchy, bumpy and externally irritated scalp, that many doctors regard it highly and prescribe it for many scalp troubles. If your scalp needs a double strength tar formula, write for this Doctor's genuine scalp formula now. It will be sent to you all mixed and ready to use. Use it for 7 days, and if you are not satisfied, your money back. Pay only $1.59 on delivery. This includes everything. Don't pay a penny more. You get it with full directions. Use the finest medicated tar scalp formula your money can buy. Your hair and scalp deserve fine care. Write now. Send no money. Just your name and address to—

Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell, Pastor of Bowen Memorial M. E. church was guest speaker last Sunday morning at Bethel A. M. E. church.

Rev. and Mrs. Hamilton Boswell and their two little daughters, Jerrie Lynn and Eleanor, have been house guests for a fortnight with Mrs. Boswell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gragg. Although they were here on business, several social courtesies were extended them. They departed for Los Angeles, Calif., Friday evening.

Rev. N. C. Austin arrived home last Friday from Washington D. C. where he spent ten days in the interest of the F. E. P. C. Bill. He was sent from Portland by various organizations here.

DeNorval Unthank Jr., 16, was elected "Boy Representative" on the student council and represents the school on the inter-city Junior Red Cross council. Unthank will graduate in June.

Mrs. Ruth Leftridge of 52 N. E. Sacramento, was the hostess Wednesday evening for the A. M. E. club meeting. After the business session dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Little, a group of teen agers celebrated Valentine's day with a dancing party. The decorations were in the Valentine colors of red and white. Hostesses were Misses Gladys Baker, Ruby Brock, Ellen Woods and Dorothy Hilliard.

"VISITORS"

Rev. and Mrs. Hamilton Boswell and two young daughters of Los Angeles, Cal., are spending two weeks visiting the city. Mrs. Boswell was the former Miss Eleanor Gragg. While here they were house guests of Mrs. Roy Gragg.

Chaplain M. A. Lowe was a pleasant visitor over the weekend, and was guest speaker Sunday morning at Bethel A. M. E. church.

Chaylain Lowe has served nineteen months in the South Pacific theater. He was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Locke while here.

Mrs. Carolyn Williams of Seattle, Wash., is spending a few days here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sheppard and her sisters, Mrs. Jane Carr Nancy Sheppard.

Miss Helena Searcie returned home after spending a forth night visiting friends in Seattle, Wash.

George Thomas, race relations director of the Portland council of churches, was one of the speakers at a goodwill banquet given by Vanport interracial council at the George C. Marshall school in Vanport. Rev. Ennis Whaley acted as master of ceremonies. The guests were entertained by singing. Among the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hamilton Boswell of Los Angeles, Calif.

WIFE HONORS MATE

On Sunday evening, February 17, at 8:00 p. m., guests arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. H. Leverett, 40 N. E. Fremont, for the purpose of celebrating a surprise birthday party for Mr. Leverett.

The dining room was beautifully decorated with a display of pink azaleas.

After being taken on a wild chase by a party of three, Mr. Leverett finally ended up at home. To his surprise, the recreation room in the basement was filled with guests.

Games of cards, checkers and poker were enjoyed by all.

A buffet supper was served and the honoree received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Canola, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Owens, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Powell, Mrs. J. Spencer, Mrs. O. Glover, Miss Lucille Barnes, Miss Robert Turner, Mrs. A. A. Askey, Miss Hannah Davis, Mr. V. L. Bush and J. D. Grisby.

Each guest acclaimed Mrs. Leverett as being a most congenial hostess, except Miss Rosalind Leverett who tried to stay awake long enough to see daddy cut the cake, but was ushered to bed, owing to the wee hours of the morning.

Vanport News

By Samuel G. Whitney

Mr. L. C. Ellison of Vanport, representative of the Portland N.A.A.C.P., received an award of honor at the regular monthly meeting on Sunday evening, Feb. 17, at the Williams avenue U.S.O. for having brought in more new applications than any other member in Portland area. Mr. Ellison was very proud of his award as he brought the good news to the church Sunday night. He is very active in doing things for the betterment of the community. He is manager of the Harmonizing Five Quartet and clerk of the Vanport Community Church.

Mr. Ellison further stated "that the young people of Vanport who have been attending youth meetings for the past few Sundays in Portland for the purpose of organizing a N.A.A.C.P. Youth Council have been making a fine record for themselves by their splendid work." We also have further information that almost half of those attending or have joined are from Vanport. Indications are that the youth organization will make good as all those attending seem to be very much interested.

The following telegram was sent to Washington, D. C., on Thursday night, to Mrs. Anna Arnold Hedgeman, Executive Secretary of National Council for a permanent F.E.P.C. 930 F.St., N. W. Washington 4, D. C. "Dear Mrs. Hedgeman: Please accept our compliments for the wonderful fight you put up for a permanent F.E.P.C. with the assistance of your colleagues. We are with you all the way. Call on us when you need help. Should you come to the west coast stop in and see us." Signed, The Vanport Community Church, Rev. B. T. Carey, pastor. The Vanport Community Sunday School, Samuel G. Whitney, Supt.

Mr. Theado Baugh was special guest at the Vanport Community Sunday School on last Sunday school workers were present at morning. Mr. Baugh was on an observation tour of different Sunday schools in this area for the purpose of getting information for a new program for his Sunday school of which he is superintendent. While the Vanport Community Sunday school is also in a process of improvement with its new superintendent, Mr. Baugh complimented them for their outline of Sunday school work.

A large crowd was present at Sunday school. The lesson was reviewed by Rev. M. M. Burns, assistant pastor.

A large crowd was also present at the regular 11:30 church service of the Vanport community church and heard a wonderful sermon by the pastor, Rev. B. T. Carey. Subject of text, "Life's Highway."

A solo was sung by Mrs. Mattie Alexander, title "Drop your net and follow me."

Members and friends of the Vanport Community church were sorry to learn of the news that Miss Pauline Wiggs, who has been pianist for the church for quite some time, left on short notice Saturday evening, Feb. 18th, for New York City, due to a serious accident to her nephew in New York. Miss Alice Hayden acted as pianist last Sunday. The church is now looking for a new pianist. Miss Hayden who is a soloist, said "she couldn't be the regular pianist for the church."

Those present at the 6:30 services witnessed a Tom Thumb wedding sponsored by the usher board with Mrs. Davis as master of ceremonies. The preacher that performed the ceremonies was little Charles Mack seven years old. Incidentally, he forgot his Bible and book of ceremonies, when the audience laughed he turned to them and said "That isn't funny." Charles declares that he is a preacher and is often seen sitting in the pulpit with his legs crossed sometimes taking the pastor's chair who usually lets him keep his seat.

More than a score of Sunday School workers were present at the teachers meeting last Tuesday night and had a very interesting study and discussion on the coming Sunday's lesson. It was the largest crowd yet to attend. One member was taking in church at the meeting in the person of Mrs. Johnnie Mae White. Mrs. White also joined the usher board.

Rev. Hopkins, who was formerly assistant pastor and left Vanport for the east recently to stay, came back a few days ago and was present at teachers meeting. He is welcomed back by his many friends.

Rev. Hopkins, like others who left Vanport and Portland proper to return to their old homes, soon began to see that they like the "City of Roses" best and made their return trip. Surely there must be something alluring about the "City of Roses."

The Harmonizing Five quartet also rendered a few numbers at the ushers program last Sunday night and a solo by Mrs. Jimmie Woods, title "Holy Spirit." A poem by Mrs. Ellis, "The Unknown Soldier."

Cinnamon Raisin Bread

The tantalizing aroma of bread baking puts the whole family in a dither! They just can't wait until it's out of the oven—specially when it's Cinnamon Raisin Bread, so fragrant with cinnamon, so chock-full of plump, juicy raisins, and sweetened with molasses. Wonderful toasted or plain, Cinnamon Raisin Bread is star of every meal and a favorite with lunchboxes.

Cinnamon Raisin Bread

2 cakes compressed yeast
3/4 cup lukewarm water
1 teaspoon sugar
1/2 cup Spry
1 tablespoon salt
1/2 cup molasses
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 cup raisins
2 cups scalded milk
6 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour

Crumble yeast into cup. Add lukewarm water and sugar and set in a warm place until it becomes light and spongy (about 15 minutes). Combine Spry, salt, molasses, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, and raisins in large bowl. Add scalded milk. Stir until Spry is melted and cool until lukewarm. Add yeast mixture. Add flour gradually, mixing very thoroughly until a stiff dough is formed. Knead dough on floured board until smooth. Place in bowl rubbed with Spry. Brush dough with Spry, cover, and let rise in warm place until double in bulk (about 2 hours).

Divide dough into 2 parts. Roll into 2 rectangles, 7 x 15 inches and 1/4 inch thick. Sprinkle each rectangle with 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon. Roll like a jelly roll and seal edges. Place in Spry-coated bread pans (8 1/2 x 5 1/2 inches). Have sealed edge on bottom of pan. Let rise until double in bulk (about 1 hour). Bake in hot oven (425°F.) 15 minutes, then reduce heat to moderate hot oven (375°F.) and bake 30-35 minutes longer. Remove from pans and brush crusts with Spry. Makes 2 loaves.
