

ALL NEWS.

Mr. Carlile is said to owe his senatorial, as well as his former political advancement, largely to his clever and ambitious wife.

There are 2700 courts in the United States engaged in granting divorces, and one marriage in every twenty-eight is thus annulled.

Father—I'm going to tan your hide.

Tommy—No, you won't. Hides go free.—Local Cities

If there is ever a time when it's a blessing for a man to be blind it is when he is in love. He can't see what a fool he is making of himself.

As the Chinaman said when he got the new electric cars running along Liberty street, "no pheesee, no pulse, alle same go like hell!"—Salem Statesman.

The cost of pensions for the fiscal year nearly closed, will amount to $112,000,000; with a prospect of being increased to $130,000,000 or more next year.

The honey records reported by a number of enterprising women prove that beekeeping is an industry in which the gentle sex may be eminently successful.

An Ohio business man is afflicted with paralysis of a very singular kind. His legs are powerless from dark to daylight, when he recovers the use of them again.

A lady wishes to know the best way to mark table linen. Blackberry pie is our choice, although a lady with a gravy dish is highly esteemed by many.—N. Y. News.

One-sixth of the luminous pig iron made in the United States is now produced in three Southern States, and this amounts to one ton in nine in all of the pig iron.

Papa—"If I have to speak to you again I'll whip you." The Terror—"Say, papa, what did you have a little boy for if you can't get along any better with him than you do."

M. F. Davis, Oregon's cadet at West Point, who graduated on the 12th, is a Polk county boy and will have a short furlough during which to visit his home, before entering the service.

"My strength," says Emperor William, "is as a rock." We have heard of bull heads and mule heads and pig heads and wooden heads, but a rock head is something further along on the same line.

The people about Lewiston, Idaho, are preparing to enter upon an extensive scheme to irrigate the upland flats therabouts. Capitalists are purchasing a large area of land and propose to irrigate it by artesian wells.

Professor P. L. Campbell has been elected president, and Prof. Powell vice president of the Monmouth State Normal school. The board of trustees will meet again June 23 to elect their additional teachers.

Assistant Postmaster General Clarkson says, "the government of the United States is a political, not a business machine." Any one who keeps posted in the workings of congress could not have stated as wisely.

"Big Six," a Birmingham, Ala., colored man, earned $5 by butting a three-year-old bull to death. After the animal had been butted five times it fell to the ground and in five minutes was dead. The negro was not injured.

Speaking of the wool market, the current number of Broadstreet's says:

"The producers are as confident as ever this season, but neither manufacturers or dealers seem to be taking hold so readily as last year or the year before."

Count Arthur Pototski, who recently died at Cracow, in his 40th year, has left a fortune of $4,000,000. He was the richest land owner in Galicia, and never came to America to look for a wife because he was simply able to support himself.

Seven learned women, at the suggestion of Miss Anthony, have incorporated themselves into a new organization in Washington under the name of "The Womans League," with a capital stock of $25,000 in $5 shares. The particular object of the Womans League is the education of women in political science, art, literature and physical culture. They intend to purchase a building to be used for meetings of women only to advance their talents.

The legislative National Committee is reported to be in need of funds. This is rather extraordinary considering that the committee has a chairman possessed of such shining talents in raising money in a ready, off-hand way.

Professor D. T. Stanley, of Monmouth, has sold out and gone to Chicago, where his family will follow him in a few days. His many friends gave him a farewell banquet Thursday evening. This is probably the end of the State Normal school scandal.

Speaker Reed has ordered the discontinuance of the sale of intoxicating liquors in the house restaurant. The order is temporary, to give the speaker an opportunity to learn just what bearing the joint rules have in the matter, and what the sentiment of the house is.

Senator Blair has introduced one good resolution in congress. It provides for an amendment to the constitution providing that it shall be unlawful for either the United States or individual states to authorize the establishment or maintenance of lotteries or any distribution of prizes by chance.

Within the next few months elections will be held in several of the states for United States senators, there being 28 senators holding office whose terms will expire next March. It is not expected the political complexion of the senate will be materially changed although some changes may be made in the men.

A Frenchman has invented a boat, in which he can remain for hours under the water, and propel and guide the boat with ease and certainty. Like a shark or a salmon this curious boat can swim about, fishbone below the surface. Recently the inventor remained under water eight hours and came up fresh and lively.

Some Pennsylvania boys while fishing discovered a skeleton in a hollow tree, beside the skeleton was a tin box containing $125 in gold coin. The latest date on the coin was 1855. The skeleton was standing erect in the tree, all the clothing had rotted off and there was nothing to indicate who the man was or whence he died.

Assistant Land Commissioner Stone has rendered a decision in which he holds that a soldier who makes filing under the homestead law of 1872, but who fails to make settlement thereon within the six months, does not forfeit his right to the land, unless an adverse claim intervenes prior to the date on which he asked settlement.

The election in Nova Scotia, on Wednesday, May 21st, resulted in an overwhelming majority for the party that favor annexation to the United States. Commercial union was the foremost issue of the canvass, and was boldly advocated by the successful candidates. Every where the spirit of union, free trade, peace and good will among men is a gazing ground.

One of the most unique memorials ever proposed for a dead hero is now being discussed at Middlesborough, Ky. It consists of the erection of a monument by Grand Army men and ex-Confederate soldiers, acting in unison, to their respective leaders in the civil war—Grant and Lee—on two mountain peaks overlooking Cumberland Gap.

A bill has been introduced into congress providing that "any person who shall disfigure the national flag, either by painting on said flag, or attaching to the same or otherwise any advertisement for public display, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not to exceed $50 or imprisoned not less than thirty days or both."

The closest shave any candidate had for office in the late election was that of P. A. Conde, democrat candidate for sheriff of Baker Co. He was victorious over his republican competitor, J. D. Smith, by just one vote. It is apparent that the entire Smith family voted for the republican candidate thereby making it quite warm for Mr. Conde but he "got there" nevertheless.

Many farmers have two or three crops of wheat on hand, holding for better market. For the wheat which nearly three years ago would bring 77 cents, now only 61 cents is offered. During the time the wheat has been held, warehouse expense and insurance have consumed a large part of it. Some day, says the Albany Democrat,

It may be noted that for January & February of 1880, the average of selling in October and November, the highest average market.

What Joe Simon don't know about how to get there politically is scarcely worth knowing. When downed, whether by fair means or foul, he whims not, neither does he complain but quietly goes to examining the certificates of the enemy, and at an hour when they expect not, Sir Joseph is there on the inside. Ask Governor Thompson and Jim Lettin if that isn't about the size of it.—Advertiser.

To produce silk-insects to make a dress requires more time and capital than most people would imagine. If we take one and one quarter pounds of the white of pure silk required, this would be equal to two pounds of raw silk. To produce two pounds of raw silk would require the entire silk obtained from 1000 to 8000 worms allowing a percentage for death by disease and other casualties.

Miss Mottie Marshall, daughter of Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, says Harper's Magazine, has the reputation of being the most beautiful American woman who has ever resided in the beauty-loving and beauty-drawing city of Paris. Another very handsome American girl abroad, is Miss Edna Bassett, who has many accomplishments, and who makes her appearance in the grand opera at Covent Garden during the season.

Four fine stores of timber 100 feet long have been ordered for an observation tower to be put up near Tabor Heights, Portland. It will be thirty-five feet square at the base and ten feet square at the top, and will have platforms every 20 feet, so that people can go as far up as they please. It will be the tallest tower in the world made of single timbers. It will be set on concrete foundations and firmly anchored, so that it will stand steadfast, though a cyclone blow through its braces.

Chief-Poo and about fifteen of his braves, accompanied by ten Lapwai Indians, have returned from the Lapwai reservation, where they have been engaged in horse racing. The Umatillas nearly cleaned out their competitors capturing ten ponies, any quantity of blankets and some money. Big races will be held soon on Umatilla reservation, wherein the visiting Lapwais hope to win back some of the captured ponies.—East Oregonian.
