CRIME AND PUNISHMENT.

At the opening of court yesterday morning, Thomas Porfilla, who had been convicted of assault...

The crime for which Porfilla is made suffer is indeed one of the worst, if not the worst in the entire decalogue of criminality...

But there is perhaps another remedy for, or rather safeguard against, this class of crime...

There is now no question as to the position of the attorney-generalship middle of the year...

In discussing the bill appropriating $100,000 for the Grand Army encampment at Washington...

The Russian crown which was first worn by Catherine the Great is valued at $100,000...

With all the talk about the exclusion of the Chinese, it is really news that immigration from the Atlantic side should be watched as closely as that on the Pacific...

The president of several commercial and industrial bodies, meeting in Portland yesterday as a joint committee...

They consider, again of the charity committee's annual, for the thirty years been judge of the city court of Meville...

The public debt statement issued last Monday, showed a cash balance of $129,000,000...

Japan's new census shows the population of the Union Pacific, which has increased in extent...

Duncan Wright, nominee of the people's party for supreme judge, has tendered his resignation...

If now transpires that Senator Stanford of California, would accept the republican nomination for president...

The indications are now that ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney, stands a good chance of being the democratic nominee for president...

Senator Dulph succeeded in passing his bill to extend the present Chinese exclusion law...
