1901 HAYSTACK STALLIONS 1901

CARDINAL RICHLIEU

The Great Stylish Black, seven-eighths French Coach, weight 1700 pounds. Any little mare bred to Richlieu will produce an animal large enough for ordinary use. This is the horse for small, standard, or thoroughbred mares. We have colts from such mares that will make 120 or 130 potatoes, and are just as stylish and handsome as their dams.

GALLANT STAMP

The Pure Bred Scotch Clydesdale. Is especially adapted to crossing on large, loose built or heavy mares. Haystack has never produced better draft colts than those from this horse.

HACKNEY

The Carriage and Saddle Sire Has some fine ones to his credit, all good colts.

For either of the above horses, $10.00, due when mare is known to be with foal, dispensed of, or allowed to escape on range.

Mares will be kept during season for 50 cents a week, due when mare is removed from pasture. Will not be responsible for accidents.

Young Teams, Stallions and Mares for Sale.

The Light of the World

OR Our Savior in Art.

Costly nearly $100,000 to produce. Contains nearly 100 full page engravings of our Savior and His Mother by the world's greatest painters. True copies of the Masterpieces in the art galleries of Europe. Every picture is as beautiful as a sunrise over the hills. Contains description of the paintings, biography of the painters, the names and the locations of the galleries in Europe where the original can be seen. Also contains a Child's Story of the Christ and His Mother, beautifully written, fit to read. This wonderful book matches in its purity and beauty, appeals to every mother's heart, and in every Christian home where there are children the book sells itself. Christian men and women are making money rapidly taking orders. A Christian man or woman can in this community soon, make $1,000 taking orders for Christmas presents. Mrs. Waite our agent in Massachusetts, has sold over $3,000 worth of the books in a very short time. Mrs. Sackett our agent in New York has sold over $1,500 worth of the books in a very short time. The book is printed on a velvet finished paper, beautifully bound in Cardinal Red and gold, and adorned with Golden Roses and Lilies. It is without doubt, the most beautiful book of this century. Write for terms quickly and get the management of that territory. You can work on salary or commission, and when you prove your success we will promote you to the position of Manager and Correspondent, at a permanent salary, to devote your time to attending to agents and the correspondence. Wanted also a State Manager to have charge of office in Leading City of the State and manage all the business of the State. Send for terms. Address—

Withdrawal of Troops

AMERICAN TROOPS LEAVE THE CHINESE CAPITAL

Their District Turned Over to the British and the Germans—Wu and Conger Confer.

PEKIN, May 10.—The Americans have evacuated the districts under their control, with the exception of the Forbidden City, which they will continue to occupy in spite of foreign objections, unless orders to the contrary are received from Washington. As it would be impossible to turn over the American districts to the Chinese, who certainly would not be allowed to keep them independently, General Chaffee, in order to prevent chaos, notified Count von Waldersee a week ago that he would evacuate today. Those portions adjoining the British districts were assigned to them, and the remaining portions were assigned to the Germans.

The departure of the troops for Manila has been delayed 10 days owing to the transport India being quarantined at Nagasaki because of a case of smallpox on the board. The American soldiers have been vaccinated.

EUROPE IS BEATING US.

Cuban Imports Increasing—Curs Decreasing.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—European imports to Cuba are increasing, while those from the United States are decreasing. The reports of the Treasury Bureau of Statistics show a falling off in exports of domestic merchandise from the United States in the eight months ending with February, 1901, with the Insular Bureau of the War Department, in charge of the commerce of Cuba, also show a decrease in Cuban imports from the United States and an increase in Cuban imports from the European countries. In the eight months ending with February, 1901, according to the Treasury Bureau of Statistics, the domestic export to Cuba were $16,023,438, against $16,412,547 in the corresponding months of last year; while the War Department statement for the nine months ending with September, 1900, shows imports from the United States into Cuba of $24,525,059, against $28,094,030 in the same months of the preceding year. The same statement of the War Department, which shows a fall of $3,500,000 in Cuban imports from the United States, shows an increase of over $2,000,000 in imports from Europe, the figures of European imports in nine months of 1900 being $21,559,239, and in nine months of 1899, $19,481,600, while the Cuban imports to the United Kingdom alone in nine months of 1900 were $8,297,865, against $6,598,582 in the corresponding months of the preceding year. Taking the entire list of European countries it is found that in large majority of cases there has been an increase in imports into Cuba in the 1900 period as compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year.

A detailed examination of the imports by classes show that European manufactures are rapidly and vigorously invading the Cuban field under the very eyes of their American rivals. England and Germany especially are increasing their exports to that island, and a comparison of the quantity or value of the various classes of manufactured goods supplied to Cuba by those countries and by the United States may prove interesting, and perhaps suggestive, to American manufacturers and merchants. Imports of boots and shoes into Cuba, for example, from the United States in the nine months of 1900 were 86,643 pairs, and from Spain 428,889 pairs. Of shoes and sandals, the imports from the United States in the nine months of 1900 were 177,390 pairs, and from Spain 1,269,793 pairs. Of matches the imports from the United States in the period under discussion were $3235 in value, and from the United Kingdom $6495. Of papers the imports from the United States fell from $224,072 in nine months of 1899 to $114,128 in the same months of 1900, while during the same period the imports of paper from Germany increased from $63,485 to $73,162. Imports of starch from the United States in nine months of 1899 were $84,807, and in the corresponding months of 1900 were $21,215, while from the United Kingdom the imports increased from $18,595 in nine months of 1899 to $47,615 in the same months of 1900. Of wines and cordials, the imports from the United States in the first half of 1899 amounted to $38,903, and in the same months of 1900 were but $9012, while in the same period of 1900 the imports of wines from France amounted to $24,804, and from Spain $1,131,941. Of iron in the form of ingots, bars and sheets, the imports from the United States in the first six months of 1900 were $493,645, against $810,217 in the same months of the preceding year; while from the United Kingdom the imports of the same class increased from $98,749 during the six months of 1899 to $205,775 in the same months of 1900. Of bags for sugar, the imports from the United States in nine months of 1899 amounted to $64,550, and in the same months of 1900 to $4387; while from Germany they were, in nine months of 1899, $7729, and in nine months of 1900, $23,933 and from the United Kingdom in the nine months of 1899, $215,239, and in the same months of 1900, $180,970. Under the head of "all other manufactures of fiber," the imports from the United States dropped from $81,337 in the nine months of 1899 to $12,586 in the corresponding months of 1900; while during the same period those from the United Kingdom increased from $967,232 to $1,335,387; those from Spain from $157,175 to $182,900, and those from France, from $88,636 to $69,943. Of the $262,481 worth of dried fish imported into Cuba during the three months ending with September, 1900, the value of $44,738 was from the United States, $85,298 from Norway and Sweden, and $123,504 from the United Kingdom. Of the $289,946 worth of cotton cloths closely woven imported during the same period, the value of $80,614 was from the United States, $87,849 from Spain, and $312,297 from the United Kingdom. Of the $162,116 worth of cotton yarn and thread imported in nine months of 1900, $3291 from the United States, $17,469 from Spain, $18,017 from the United Kingdom. Under the classification of "all other manufactures of cotton," the total for the nine months ending with September, 1900, is $3,307,494, and of this $227,372 worth was from the United States, $329,880 from France, $904,915 from Spain, and $1,633,510 from the United Kingdom.
