SENATORS RESIGN

Row Between B. F. Tillman and John L. McLaurin.

They Are to Go Before the People on a Joint Canvass, the Primaries to Be Held in November.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 25.—As the outcome of a spirited debate between United States Senators B. F. Tillman and John L. McLaurin at Gaffney today, both of them have put their resignations in the hands of Governor McSweeney to take effect November 15. They have resigned with the understanding that they are to go before the people of the state in a joint canvass and that the sentiment of the people is to be held in November.

Tillman was last summer elected to the United States Senate for six years and McLaurin has yet two years to serve. Should Tillman be sustained, McLaurin's seat will be vacant. If McLaurin is successful, he will succeed to Tillman's long term.

GAFFNEY, S. C., May 25.—Senator McLaurin, when asked about the resignation, said: "Tillman made a bluff and I called him. All I desire is a free, fair and open fight on the issues upon which we differed. I earnestly hope that all others will keep out of our race and run for the other Senatorships, so that Tillman and I may meet as man to man and fight it out."

A WRATHY SCOT.

Spurns Carnegie's Offer to Scotland's Universities.

LONDON, May 25.—"We trust in Scottish pride to rise in its wrath against this invasion of the almighty dollar," says the Review of this week, commenting upon Andrew Carnegie's munificence to Scotland's universities.

"Many of the oldest and best families in Scotland," continues the periodical, "send their sons to Scottish universities where they pay their fees, like the son of their humblest neighbors, neither more nor less. It is to be believed that this will continue if the fees are paid for them by Mr. Carnegie's? Imagine the Duke of Hamilton, Cameron of Lochiel, or McDonald of the Isles, allowing his heir to get education at the cost of an American ironmonger! We shall next hear of some Chicago pork-packer proposing to buy up Oxford and Cambridge and dictating terms of admission and the subjects to be taught; or of Boss Croker forming a lobby to control the London University, with the object of inculcating Tammany principles in the mind of the rising generation of Cockneys."

TWO GIRLS SUE SHERIFF KEES.

Alleged Unlawful Detention in Jail—A Case For Damages.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 27.—Notice of suit for $8000 damages was filed on A. F. Kees, sheriff of Walla Walla county, this evening by Pearl and Alice Durkee. The case is already causing excitement here.

In August, 1900, W. B. Taylor of Walla Walla was accused of assault on Pearl and Alice Durkee, two minors living here. Taylor fled and three weeks later was caught by Sheriff Kees and Chief Kaufman in Everett. He was jailed and as the Durkee girls could not furnish bond for appearance as witnesses they met the same fate. The case went over one term, not coming up until the last moment, when Taylor got three years.

All this time the girls were in jail. Their mother applied for witness fees from September 5, 1900, until April, 1901, at $220 a day. The law states that witness fees must be applied for at the end of each day, and Schuyler Arnold, county clerk, denied entrance to the claim on this ground. Judge Brents sustained this. Now suit for $8000 is brought against Sheriff Kees as an individual alleging unlawful detention. The case will come up in June.

Louisville to Stop Prize Fights.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 25.—As a result of last night's brawl after the Hart-Creedon fight in which Dave Sullivan of New York was knocked out by Dave Hubbards, and the police had to quell a general mixup. Mayor Weaver has decided that he can not longer tolerate the sport here, and has called the attention of the board of safety to the matter.

Looks Much Like He Is Guilty.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 27.—F. K. Dahl, an ex-resident of Aberdeen, is under arrest at Victoria, B. C., on a charge of forgery. He appealed to friends here, saying he was unjustly accused and kept in prison. Inquiry from the United States Consul Smith, at Victoria, brings the statement that Dahl is guilty; that the evidence is conclusive, and that Dahl has been advised by his attorney to plead guilty.
