HER CASE CRITICAL

MRS. MCKINLEY'S CONDITION IS CAUSING MUCH CONCERN.

She Has Become So Weak That It Is Feared That She May Lose Her Ralliating Power.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Mrs. McKinley continues very weak. Her condition is not greatly changed from that of yesterday, but each day that elapses without a gain in strength lessens her power of recuperation.

There were no further consultations of the physicians during the day, but Dr. Rixey called later and spent some time with the patient.

In response to inquiries from time to time the statement was made that there had been no change.

President McKinley spent most of the day at the bedside of his wife, though late in the afternoon he went out for an hour's drive.

He departed alone, but met Judge Watson, of Ohio, an old friend, on the way, and the latter accompanied him to the White House.

Dr. Rixey and Sternberg both were in attendance at the White House during the evening, although the latter did not remain very long.

Dr. Rixey was at the mansion for over two hours and when he left for the night, shortly before 11 o'clock, he announced that at that time Mrs. McKinley was resting comfortably, as she had done all afternoon.

Senator Elkins called on the president during the evening and was with him for about 15 minutes.

LOCKS TAMPERED WITH.

Discovery and Vigilance of officers Frustrated Jail Delivery.

TACOMA, June 1.—Several weeks ago the guards at McNeill's penitentiary discovered that the locks on certain cells had been tampered with.

A careful watch was kept, and gradually the plan was unfolded that culminated in an attempt last night at a wholesale jail delivery.

The occupants of cells Nos. 2 and 3, by means of wooden keys, made their escape into the corridor where they lay in wait for the night guard, intending to overpower him, unlock the cells of other prisoners and with their hack saws cut their way to liberty.

The two prisoners thus caught were Bruce Kenwright, from Alaska, serving a sentence of 15 years for manslaughter, and James Moriarty, sentenced to 10 years for counterfeiting at Spokane.

OH in Wyoming.

LARAMIE, Wyo., June 1.—It is announced that oil has been discovered at Wolcott, a station on the Union Pacific, 90 miles west of here.

The vein was struck while drilling for an artesian well.

HOLD-UP STORY A FAKE.

He Acknowledges He Hid Money—May Have to Stand Trial for Embezzling.

SEATTLE, June 1.—George Mulligan, who alleged last night that he was assaulted and robbed of $17,000, is today under police surveillance, and there is a bare possibility that he will face prosecution on a charge of embezzlement.

Mulligan was not robbed. He confessed this afternoon to the chief of police that he had kept the money hidden in the Alaska Commercial hotel, where he was stopping at that time and made up the story. The money has been recovered.

At the confession Mulligan stated that he was trying to test his companions. Mulligan's 33 companions, members of the Eagle City Placer Mining company, have the utmost faith in him.

So great is this simple confidence of the Kansas cowboys in their leader that they made a statement this noon to a reporter of an evening paper to the effect that they fully believed that Mulligan had been robbed, and that they were willing to face the loss. They were on their way to the Yukon to conduct a placer mining establishment.

From the fact that before the time of the alleged robbery Mulligan had flashed money in saloons, his story was given a great deal of credence.

SHORTAGE SETTLED.

Ex-School Land Clerk Odell Makes Good His Error.

SALEM, June 1.—The clerks who examined the State Land Office found a shortage of $71.30 during the term of General W. H. Odell as clerk.

This shortage was due to an error. General Odell had paid the amount to the state treasurer, and when George W. Davis pays his $31,000, all delinquencies of this kind will be squared up.

Fifteen Fishermen Drowned.

CHARLESTON, S. C. June 1.—Fifteen fishermen are supposed to have been drowned in a wild squall yesterday afternoon while the mosquito fleet of fishing-boats was anchored off the fishing "patches."

The eight boats fishing at the time were scattered to the four winds, but all save three were accounted for tonight.

The missing boats were the Anna Julia, the Messenger Boy and the Knife. There were 15 men in the three boats.

When the supposed disaster was reported the revenue cutter Forward went to sea and skirted for 30 miles around the light-ship, but came back with the report that not a sign of life or disabled boat could be seen.

Captain Joe Watkins, of the Messenger Boy is the only white skipper supposed to have perished.

Boy Drowned.

SHERIDAN, Or., June 1.—Willie Blackburn, aged 12 years, son of Walter Blackburn, was drowned yesterday afternoon.

With some other boys, he was swimming. All were in a boat, when Blackburn fell out of the boat.

He at once called for help, but could not be reached before he went down for the third time.

His companions immediately called for help and the body was recovered in a few minutes, but life was extinct.

Dowie Not Indicted.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The grand jury today, after a thorough investigation of the facts surrounding the death of Mrs. H. W. Judd, decided to vote no indictments.

Mrs. Judd was a patient of John Alexander Dowie, and died while under the ministrations of the Zion leader and several of his followers, one of whom was Mr. Judd, her husband.

All the persons concerned were held to the grand jury by the coroner's jury.
