It is with pleasure we are able to announce that all the patients of Dr. Taggart suffering from blind ness are recovering. The cataract case is nearly cured; one man who existed in the dark for years is now in the light.

Judge Booth returned home the first of the week from Salem, where he had been for several weeks past working as a member of the third house and against cutting off any portion of Crook county. The judge looks like Salem agreed with him.

A bill has been introduced and passed in the senate raising the salaries of several of the Crook county officials. As soon as it was generally known by the people that such a measure was in the legislature a strong remonstrance was sent to Representatives Burgess, Whealdon and Emmett protesting against its passage in the house.
