PRINEVILLE REVIEW.

THURSDAY - MARCH 21 1903

Call for County Warrants.
Notice is hereby given that all Crook county warrants registered after Nov. 11, 1902, to and including registered warrant No. 168, Feb. 23, 1903, will be paid in presentation to the treasurer of this county, interest will cease on same from date of this notice.
Prineville, Ore., March 4, 1903.
M. H. BELL, County Treasurer.

LOCALETTES.

Dr. Taggart left for Post Wednesday.
Dr. Belknap is still very low with pneumonia.

Mrs. Al Cook, of Haystack, was in Prineville Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Lytle has been very sick for the past week.

We have just commenced to have our spring weather.

John Edwards, of Willow creek, spent Sunday in Prineville.

Geo. Gibson, of Post, was in town the fore part of the week.

Sheriff C. Sam Smith left Tuesday for Ashwood on legal business.

Pat Hastings, of Hay creek, made this office a pleasant call Monday.

John Poindexter left Tuesday for his home at La Camas, Wash.

Dave Barnett, of Haystack, was a business visitor in our city Tuesday.

Will Edwards, of Sisters, was a business visitor in our city this week.

Fred T. Higgins is down for a few days from his Bear creek ranch.

Crook county is now out of debt and Treasurer Bell is paying cash for all warrants as fast as issued.

The Misses McCallister, of Lamonta, spent Saturday and Sunday in our city.

Our postmaster talks in a whisper these days. George seems to have a good gripe.

County Supt. Boegli has just finished a neat picket fence around his property.

Mrs. Med Vanderpool, after spending a few days on Deschutes, arrived home Saturday.

Large crowds of people are now arriving daily and filing upon timber and homestead lands.

The Prineville-Shaniko Stage Co. have moved their office into the Bowling Alley building.

Hay Sing, of the firm of Ab Tye & Bros., arrived home from Portland on Wednesday of last week.

During these fine days gardening is opening up and people are busy preparing the soil for planting.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dyer are visiting with Mrs. Dyer's parents, A. C. Knighten and wife of this city.

Lou E. Allingham returned from the timber belt Sunday with a crowd of people who filed on timber claims.

Dan Powell, after spending the winter months in Los Angeles and other California points, arrived home Monday.

Wallace Post was in town Tuesday with a wagon load of potatoes, which he soon disposed of at 3 cents per pound.

Frank Elkins and family and Mrs. Logan returned this week from their homes on the Agency plains and Frank reports crops in that neighborhood very promising.

Wm. St. Thomas, the timber locator, is nursing a good dose of la grippe.

J. N. Gulliford, of Pendleton, is in the city looking after his business interests in this county.

W. A. Laidlaw, president of the Columbia Southern Irrigation Co., left for Portland Sunday to be gone a few weeks.

We understand that Corbett & Booth have bought out the livery business of Wm. H. Smith near the Ochoco bridge.

Geo. Schlecht, who is going to establish a newspaper plant at the Bend, is in town looking matters over and getting acquainted.

J. E. Morrison, president of the Oregon Development Co., whose selection under the Carey act was rejected, left here Monday for northern points.

Mrs. Slayton left for Portland Thursday to lay in her spring stock of millinery goods. During her absence Mrs. Van Arman is in charge of the store.

Preaching at the Union church, morning and evening, the 20th. Subject—The presence and gift of the Holy Spirit today. Baptism at 2 P. M. if any desire it. E. A. Child.

Sheriff Smith turned over to Treasurer Bell Tuesday $34,000 of the $43,000 of taxes of the 1902 roll. This is a good showing for the promptness of the taxpayers of this county.

Some of our most prominent young men are contemplating a deer hunt in the near future. Just where we are unable to learn, but think it must be in the high hills from all indications.

Charley Don passed through town Tuesday on his way to Antelope from a two weeks visit in Lake county, and reports a heavy loss there among sheepmen, being about 40 per cent.

We wish to thank our many kind friends who came to our rescue when left without the necessary help in our office during the past two weeks, and assure them their kindness will never be forgotten, and hope they will never experience what we have gone through.

We are pleased to announce to our patrons that we have secured the services of H. A. Clemens, one of the best newspaper and job men in the state, as foreman in our office. While we have always been proud of our work, yet we will say that we are now able and ready to turn out a far better class of work than ever before.

At the Redby Hotel, Room 14

MRS. HAWKINS.

Has a first-class dressmaking and ladies' tailoring establishment. All work strictly up-to-date and guaranteed.

Rev. H. C. Clark will preach at Culver, Sunday, March 29, at 11 o'clock and also in the evening.

Hayden, the contractor, has completed the offices of Drs. Rosenberg and Clark just south of Templeton & Son's drug store. Dr. Rosenberg moved in on Sunday. Dr. Clark is away and we do not know when he will be ready for patients.

We made an error last week in saying the present force on this paper had no politics. The strong man who operates the machines and the type are both democrats. They threaten to change this sheet to a full fledged democratic sheet unless the editor soon returns.

A large petition was presented to the county court at the last meeting of the commissioners for a bridge over the Crooked river at Campbell's ford. This is something that should be attended to as the people of the western part of the county are now put at times to great inconvenience in coming to and going from Prineville.

At the first regular meeting of the Central Oregon Stock and Fair association T. H. LaFollette was elected president; George Springer vice-president; Will Wurzweiler secretary and treasurer. Grounds for permanent meetings have been secured within one mile of the postoffice with plenty of room for a mile track. The assurance is given there will be a fair this fall. Now is the time to go to work to prepare exhibits for the best fair ever held in Oregon. The Review wishes to impress upon its patrons the necessity of early work in order to secure the best results, results that will be a credit to Eastern Oregon as well as the exhibitor.

Miss Hodges in the Lead.
The lady who wins the fine four hundred dollar piano we are going to give away will have something she may well feel proud of. It is worth working for.

For sale.
Half interest in store building and lot and one-third interest in the Prineville Flouring Mills; and one-third interest in a small farm close to Prineville. For particulars inquire of D. F. Stewart.

Married.
At the residence of G. W. Ramsey, Cyrenus Cumbest, of Jackson county, to Celia M. Forrest, Rev. E. A. Child officiating. Mr. Cumbest and bride intend to move to Jackson county about the first of June and make it their future home.

The Review extends congratulations and wishes the happy couple a pleasant and prosperous journey through life.

Call on or address,
J. L. McCulloch, Manager.

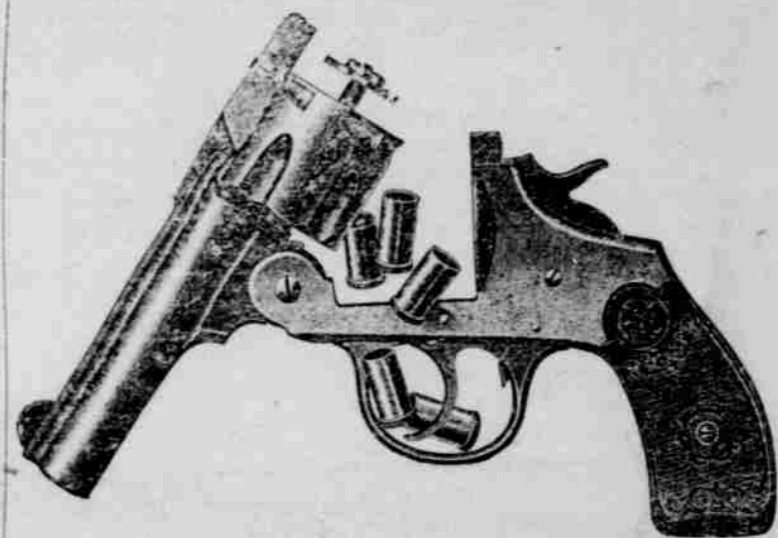

Obit.
On last Thursday afternoon all that was mortal of Horace L. Bayless passed to the great unknown. Mr. Bayless was ill, but a short time, first having the gripe which turned into pneumonia and in eight short days breathed his last at the residence of M. R. Biggs in this city. Mr. Bayless came to this section some three and a half years ago, and by his upright conduct and gentlemanly ways soon gained the friendship of all who became acquainted with him. He was a native of Tennessee, his parents residing at Jonesboro in that state. Everything that could be done for the sufferer by kind friends and the Odd Fellows, of which order he was a member, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Biggs who looked after him as if he were one of their own family.

Rev. Alter conducted the funeral services at the Union church yesterday afternoon after which the remains were taken in charge by the Odd Fellows, who laid their brother away in his last resting place.
